

THIS TERM'S CHARITABLE CAUSES

HOMESTART CAMBRIDGESHIRE

This local charity aims to help give every child the best possible start in life by supporting families. They train volunteers to provide tailored practical and emotional support through weekly visits and run support groups in Cambridge and Wisbech.

GIVEDIRECTLY

GiveDirectly sends money directly to the world's poorest households, believing that people living in poverty deserve the dignity to choose for themselves how best to improve their lives – cash enables that choice. Individuals invest in what they need from school fees to irrigation, tin roofs to businesses that generate income.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

All members of the College community are welcome – see the weekly Chapel email for further information

Chaplain's Tea

Tuesdays in Full Term • 3.30–4.30 pm • F2 Whewell's

Drop in for tea, doughnuts and a chance to take control of the music playlist.

Thursday Crafternoons – Make Do and Mend

Thursdays • 4.00–6.00 pm • H2 New Court

Please note the new date and time

This term our focus will be on mending those holey jumpers and ripped jeans. Expert advice and all the tools you need will be on hand. Or, bring along your own craft projects AND those jigsaws and games you got for Christmas to a relaxed session with tea and cake provided. Contact Anne.

Women's Bible Study: Romans for Normal People

Sundays • 4.30–5.30 pm • H2 New Court

Join our warm and friendly group for tea and cake as we continue to explore Paul's Letter to the Romans, the famously contested Epistle that (arguably) set off the whole thing we call the Reformation. New members always welcome! Contact Anne.

Getaway to ... King's Lynn

Saturday 27 January • Meet Cambridge Railway Station 10.15 am

King's Lynn boasts two Grade I listed Guildhalls: one is the only theatre in which Shakespeare (almost certainly) performed. Add to this Seahenge, an ancient monument uncovered by the sea, and Norfolk's second most famous medieval mystic ... and all only 55 minutes from Cambridge! Contact Anne to register and for a copy of The Booke of Margery Kempe.

Cambridge United

Saturday 10 February

Come and watch Cambridge United continue their relentless march to glory in the EFL Division 1, this time thrashing Cheltenham. Kick off at 3.00 pm. Contact John.

Shrove Tuesday – Pancakes and Fizz

Tuesday 13 February • Ante-Chapel, after Evensong

Join us for Evensong at 6.15 pm followed by traditional pancakes and drinks in the Ante-Chapel.

Valentine's Day – Dawn Chorus

Wednesday 14 February • Meet at Queen's Gate at 6.30 am

Traditionally the day birds find their mates. We visit a bird sanctuary (with hides) in our own Fellows' Garden to see whether we can catch them at it. Bring binoculars, bird books and your friend who's a Twitcheer. Return to College for proper croissants and good coffee together. Contact Anne to register.

Table Talk

Monday 19 February • His Honour Judge Andrew Hurst

A chance to meet other students from around the College over a lovely candlelit meal. Our guest speaker, Andrew Hurst, is a Crown Court Judge who grew up in Cambridge but inexplicably chose to study elsewhere, treading the boards as a member of the Oxford Revue when he could have been in the Footlights! Like all the best lawyers, he's also a priest in the Church of England. Contact Anne as soon as possible as spaces are limited.

Ely Octagon Tower Tour

Saturday 24 February

A guided tour climbing to the top of the Octagon tower, the crowning glory of the masterpiece which is Ely Cathedral. Contact John.

Getaway to ... Grantchester

Saturday 2 March • Meet at Queen's Gate at 10.00 am

Enjoy a leisurely stroll along the river through a landscape immortalised by poets and artists, to the village with a TV murder count to rival New York. The new series premieres this January. Be warned: you may be quizzed on its contents as we enjoy a break at the Orchard Tea Garden. Contact Anne.
