

TRINITY COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

Further Particulars for the role of Library Assistant

August 2023

Further particulars

Trinity College, founded in 1546 by Henry VIII, is the largest College in the University of Cambridge, with some 700 undergraduates, 300 graduate students, over 180 Fellows and around 350 non-academic staff. With a history that includes Newton and Byron, the College excels academically in the sciences and the arts. It attracts students and scholars from around the globe and provides an environment in which they can flourish.

The Library occupies four buildings, but is run as a single organisation:

- The Wren Library, completed in 1695, houses some 80,000 older books and serves as the reading room for special collections as well as being open to tourists daily
- The College Library is adjacent to the Wren Library and provides around 100 seats for students. Together with a basement store, this building houses more than 200,000 books
- A separate Law reading room provides books and study space for Law students
- The Muniments Room houses the College's Archives, dating from the twelfth century to the present day

The printed books are catalogued online using Folio as the ILS, as well as in the University's online catalogue, iDiscover, and in appropriate specialist catalogues (ESTC, LibraryHub, etc.). Descriptions of the 1250 medieval manuscripts, catalogued by M. R. James in 1901-3, are available online, and modern manuscripts and archives are catalogued using the AtoM system. The Wren Digital Library provides images of more than 1000 complete volumes, and its continued expansion and development will be a major project for the Library in coming years.

The College Library is open to members of the College between 8 am and 1 am daily in term-time, with slightly reduced hours in the vacation. The Sub-Librarian prepares a rota of library staff and desk supervisors who staff the main desk throughout the opening hours. A self-issue borrowing system has been introduced in recent years.

The Wren Library is open to Fellows, and to visiting researchers applying to consult special materials, from 9 to 5 on weekdays. The study desk can accommodate up to six researchers each day, and is invigilated at all times. The Wren is open to tourist visitors between 12 and 2 on weekdays, and on Saturday mornings in Full Term, and two Custodians are present for this period to oversee the visitors. There are around 25,000 visitors each year during this time, and several thousand more attend separate tours at other times of day, including special interest groups, schools visits and VIP visitors to Cambridge, for whom a visit to the Wren Library is often included as a memorable part of their trip. These tours are generally led by the Sub-Librarian or the Librarian.

The Library's staff comprise the Librarian, Sub-Librarian, Senior Assistant Librarian, Assistant Librarian, the Digitisation Services Manager, a Rare Books Cataloguer, a Senior Library Assistant, a Digitisation Assistant, a Graduate Trainee and 5 Library Assistants (full-time or part-time); the College Archivist is supported by two Assistant Archivists; two Wren Custodians invigilate during tourist opening hours, and there is a Library Cleaner and Collections Care Assistant. In addition, there are a number of Desk Supervisors who staff the Enquiry Desk out-of-hours.

JOB DESCRIPTION

| Job Title: | Library Assistant |
| Department: | Library |
| Reports to: | Senior Assistant Librarian |
| Responsible for: | - |

Purpose of role

The Library Assistant will provide support for the day-to-day running of the Library across reader services, stock management and special collections. As a front-line member of staff they have to deal with students, Fellows, college staff and external readers on a daily basis, and must be comfortable dealing with in person and online enquiries. This is an excellent career development opportunity for someone looking to develop their library skills.

Key Accountabilities

1. Supervising readers of special collections materials (manuscripts, printed books, archival material), advising on their handling at the Wren Desk and checking back material after consultation.
2. Fetching materials for readers from the Wren Library and the Library's secure store.
3. Re-shelving special collections material (books and archival material) and ensuring their secure storage, and modern books in the College Library.
4. Assisting with condition checking and cleaning of special collections items.
5. Assisting with the Library's digitisation programme through the scanning of materials or post-processing of images.
6. Staffing the Enquiry Desk in the College Library as required, using the electronic circulation system, dealing with enquiries both in person and in writing from students and visitors and welcoming external readers to the Library.
7. Assisting with the checking of reading lists using the Folio ILS.
8. Processing of new books by covering, labelling and stamping to ensure books are clearly marked.
9. Scanning or copying of material for Library users.
10. Production of Library signage; stack ends, shelf-edge labels etc.
11. Contributing towards the Library's social media pages by generating content in both image and text.
12. Participating in the annual stock checks around the Library.
13. Undertaking administrative duties including filing, scanning, data entry, spiral binding and laminating notices.
14. Book moves as required.
15. To invigilate tourists in the Wren Library from time-to-time.
16. Any other duties as required by the Librarian or Sub-Librarian of a professional, administrative or manual nature in line with the wider aims of the Library.
