

TRINITY COLLEGE

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Trinity College is committed to the principle of equality of opportunity in employment and does not discriminate on the grounds of sex, sexual orientation, ethnic origin, age, marital status, religious beliefs, gender reassignment, marriage or partnership status, or disability. It is the aim of the College to ensure that no person will receive less favourable treatment on these grounds.

In order for this to be carried out in practice, it is necessary to monitor our recruitment. This means noting the sex, status, ethnic origin, disability and age of all applicants. If it appears that any group is being excluded from our employment, we will investigate to see if there is any discrimination taking place. The provision of this information is however entirely voluntary.

The information we ask you to give below on your sex, status, ethnic origin, disability and age will remain confidential and will not be used to select applicants for interview or appointment. It will be used for monitoring purposes only.

If you have any reason to believe that you have not been fairly considered for employment and that there may have been discrimination because of your sex, ethnic origin, age or disability, please contact the Head of HR, Trinity College, Cambridge CB2 1TQ, Tel: 01223 765134, who will investigate the matter fully and let you know the result.
