Arrival at the College
If you arrive at Trinity on a weekday between 8.00 am and 6.00 pm, please report to the Old College Office, which is inside and to the left of the Great Gate as you enter from Trinity Street. There will be somebody there to welcome you and to tell you what to do next. If you arrive outside these hours, please report to the Porters' Lodge at the Great Gate. If you have booked overnight accommodation in College, the Porters will give you your key and tell you how to find your room. Rooms are available any time after 2.00 pm (the Porters’ Lodge is open 24 hours so you may arrive at any time).

Meals
Cafeteria service meals will be available in Hall at the following times:

Dress Code
There is no particular dress code for interviews at Trinity. You are encouraged to dress comfortably.

Illness
If you are unfortunate enough to become ill whilst you are here, you can ask the College Nurse for help and advice. Her surgery is on B staircase, Nevile’s Court. If she is not there, the porters should be able to contact her. Most porters are qualified first aiders if you need assistance.

Reflection room
A reflection room is available in College. If you would like to use this during your visit, please ask one of the student helpers to escort you.

General Enquiries
If you have any queries about arrangements in College while you are here, or if you need any information or directions, please ask the admissions staff in the Old College Office or the porters at the Great Gate. We regret that we are unable to arrange conducted tours during the interview period but you are very welcome to look around the College while you are here. The Wren Library is normally open to visitors from 12.00 noon to 2.00 pm, but you may visit it outside these hours if you wish. You may also use the Reading Room of the College Library (F Nevile’s Court) as a quiet place to study or collect yourself before an interview. Opening hours during the interview period are 8.00 am to 8.00 pm Monday to Friday and 9.00 am to 5.00 pm on Saturday. Please tell a member of staff there that you are a candidate for admission.
