Regulations and General Information

for Student Members of the College

2019–2020
This ‘White Book of Regulations and General Information’ (the ‘White Book’) sets out in one place key information about the College and how it functions, together with the main rules and procedures that students must comply with. The ‘White Book’ applies to all members of the College who are undergraduate students and postgraduate students working for degrees, certificates, and diplomas.

The ‘White Book’ is divided into three parts with a number of appendices. The first section contains information about the academic, tutorial and welfare arrangements in College, and College policies; the second section contains information about College facilities, including catering, and details about College accounts (billing and payment); the third section sets out the College’s formal Code of Discipline, which is not included in this version of the White Book this year, as it is undergoing substantial revision. The revised Disciplinary Procedures will be available on the College’s website by the end of September 2019.

All students are expected to be familiar with the contents of the ‘White Book’ which should be read in conjunction with appropriate sections of the College intranet (MyTrin) and the University website. This information is important to ensure that students experience a safe, productive and enjoyable time in Trinity.

The Accommodation Handbook (see under www.trin.cam.ac.uk/accommodation_handbook) gives more detailed information about the room allocation process, licence agreements, room rates and the rules governing College accommodation.

1. THE STRUCTURE OF THE COLLEGE

Junior Members
The student body of the College comprises around 720 undergraduate and 350 postgraduate students. Students are formally referred to as 'Junior Members' of the College in the College Ordinances.

Undergraduates of the College who go on to become postgraduates are referred to as BA students, whereas those who enter the College as postgraduates, having completed their undergraduate degree elsewhere, are called Advanced Students. Both of these groups form the graduate body of the College.

Students who, after having graduated at another University, come to take an undergraduate course in Cambridge in two years (instead of the usual three) are referred to as Affiliated Students. Undergraduates who are more than 21 years of age when they enter the College are referred to as Mature Students.

All students remain members of the College after they have completed their course of studies unless, having committed an offence against the College Ordinances or by their own request, their names are deleted from the College Boards by order of the College Council.

All undergraduates have membership of the Trinity College Student Union (TCSU), postgraduates are members of the BA Society and have the right to membership of the TCSU which will be granted upon request to the TCSU President. Elections are held annually for the TCSU and BA Society Committees, which manage the day-to-day affairs of their members. (These are the equivalent of the JCR and the MCR in other colleges.)

Senior Members
The governing body of the College comprises the Master and about 180 Fellows who are known as the ‘Senior Members’ of the College. Day-to-day business is conducted by the College Council consisting of the Master, the Vice-Master, the Senior Tutor, the Senior and Junior Bursars, and nine other Fellows. The College is a Registered Charity of which the Members of Council are legally the Charity Trustees.

College Officers and Support Staff
Every student has a Tutor (section 15) and every undergraduate student a Director of Studies (section 8). In addition, students will come into contact with a number of other College Officers and support staff who are integral to the way in which the College operates.

The Tutorial Department is headed by the Senior Tutor who is supported by the Tutorial Manager, who in turn is helped by an assistant and a small team of administrators who support the Tutors, academic staff and other Fellows. In particular, the Tutorial Office staff are available every day to provide practical advice and support (e.g. letters of confirmation of student status for banks, advice about welfare support etc.). The Fellows Office and the Admissions Office also fall within the remit of the Tutorial Department. The Admissions Office comprises the Director of Admissions and two Tutors for Admissions, one for the Arts, one for the Sciences and an Administrator. Two Schools Liaison Officers (SLOs) are responsible for encouraging students to apply from as wide a range of backgrounds as possible. Tutorial staff work closely with the welfare team: the Nurse, the Mental Health and Wellbeing Advisor (MHA), College Counsellor (section 16), and the College Chaplains (section 58).

The Junior Bursar (JB) is responsible for the operational side of the College, for example buildings, HR and accommodation. The Senior Bursar (SB) is responsible for the financial side of the College, including its investments. Despite the names, the JB’s position is not junior to that of the SB. Students are most likely to come into contact with the JB during their time in Trinity.

The Dean of College (not to be confused with the Dean of Chapel) deals with ‘disorderly conduct in College’. In addition, the Dean presides over the Dean’s Committee which considers cases of poor academic performance.
2. TERM DATES

The University’s academical year extends from 1 October to 30 September, and is divided into three terms (Michaelmas, Lent and Easter) and three vacations. The term dates for 2019–2020 are provided below.

Undergraduate students are expected to be in Cambridge during the teaching term, known as Full Term, which is eight weeks long with a few days either side for private study. This is the period during which University lectures, supervisions, departmental classes and examinations take place (the main examination period is in Easter Term).

Full Term begins on Redit Day and ends on Exit Day. The College’s license agreement for room rental for undergraduates allows for arrival from the Saturday night prior to the start of Full Term in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms and from the Saturday night prior to the start of Term for the Easter Term. There may be reason for students to arrive before Redit Day (e.g. for start-of-term tests) and it is advisable to check this with Directors of Studies in advance. For formal residency requirements, see below (section 3).

Further details, and term dates for the next few years, are published on the University’s website, at: www.cam.ac.uk/about-the-university/term-dates-and-calendars

3. RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS & EXEATS

Keeping Term
It is a University rule that, in order to qualify for the BA Degree, an undergraduate must not only pass the necessary examinations but also ‘keep terms’, by residence in Cambridge (i.e. within the University’s precincts) for a specified number of days, as one of the conditions for graduation. The College must certify termly that this condition has been satisfied. The University Ordinances explain this in more detail but, in effect, the minimum period for keeping term is covered by the period within each term known as ‘Full Term’ (see above) and all undergraduate students are expected to be resident in Cambridge at least between Redit Day and Exit Day. Students may be asked to arrive earlier or leave later (e.g. for College tests).

Please refer to the Accommodation Handbook for further information regarding occupation of rooms. Students must seek permission from their Tutors if they wish to come up early or depart after the period covered by the license agreement. Students should also let their Tutors know if they need to return to or leave College early due to illness or some other emergency. Tutors will liaise with the Accommodation Office as needed.

Exeats
Students who spend any nights away from Cambridge during Full Term must make these up by residing for additional nights within the same term but outside Full Term. An undergraduate is normally allowed three Exeats (i.e. to be absent from Cambridge for up to three nights in total). It is not necessary to ask permission for these nights away before leaving Cambridge, but you must ‘swipe out’ and ‘swipe in’ (as mentioned in section 35). If you wish to be away for a longer period you should consult your Tutor, who may allow additional Exeats in exceptional circumstances. An undergraduate who has an Exeat must return to Cambridge before midnight on the night following the night of absence.

Overseas Students
In addition to the University’s residence requirements, under the points-based immigration system, the University has a legal responsibility to monitor the attendance and residence of all those who hold student visas under its sponsorship and the College is required to assist with this duty. Further instructions on reporting procedures will be issued to all those from overseas who are studying here on a visa. Please note that you are required to comply promptly with any instructions or requests issued by the College in this regard and to inform your Tutor if there are any changes to your immigration status.

4. ACADEMICAL DRESS

By tradition and custom, academical dress (i.e. a gown) is worn at formal dinners in Hall, and is also worn in the University Church (Great St Mary’s) and the Senate House on a few special occasions of which notice will be given. A student is required to wear a gown if called to appear before the Dean. Academical dress must not be worn directly over shirts or pullovers or over sports clothing.

5. STUDENT RECORDS

Your CamSIS record holds your personal and course details: course information will be maintained by the University and College; you are responsible for your addresses and telephone records. The University will ask you to verify your student record at the beginning of the academic year – this is called Student Registration. It is essential that you do this to make sure that the information held is correct. The contact details on your record will be used to send you important information or get hold of you in an emergency, so it is essential that these are kept updated, in particular your mobile telephone number. Overseas students sponsored by a Tier 4 visa must have a current UK address and UK telephone number on their CamSIS record.

You can log onto your CamSIS Self-Service at:
https://www.camsis.cam.ac.uk/students

The College’s privacy notice for students explains how the College handles and uses information collected about those applicants who receive an offer of study, and students once they join the College.
https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/website/dpn
6. GRADUATION

Although Congregations (degree ceremonies) are held at intervals throughout the year, undergraduates proceed to their first degrees at the end of their final term, at General Admission. In 2020, Graduation Day for Trinity College graduands is Wednesday 24 June 2020. Graduands and their guests attend a ceremony in the Senate House in the morning, followed by lunch in College afterwards. Full details will be circulated to those expected to graduate at the beginning of the Easter Term.

Ordinary Congregations are held once a month during Full Term and once during the Long Vacation in July. Unlike General Admission, which is set aside for first degrees, all other degrees – e.g. PhD, MPhil, MA, MB – as well as BA degrees, can be conferred at Ordinary Congregations.

Graduands attending an Ordinary Congregation may invite three guests to watch the ceremony at the Senate House and attend a lunch in College with their guests on the day. Graduands (only) are also invited to dinner at High Table on the evening before the ceremony.

Full details on everything to do with graduation ceremonies, including dates and how to register, can be found at: www.trin.cam.ac.uk/tutorial/graduation

Undergraduate Study

7. THE UNIVERSITY

Your Faculty or Department is responsible for arranging lectures, seminars, and practicals (where relevant). You will be provided with a handbook by your Faculty or Department providing information on the facilities and services offered locally, in addition to expectations of you during your course of study. For further information, see: www.cambridgestudents.cam.ac.uk/your-course/undergraduate-study
8. DIRECTORS OF STUDIES (DOS)

Every undergraduate student is allocated a Director of Studies (DoS) in their subject area who is the first port of call for any academic concerns or advice. Directors of Studies are ‘Teaching Fellows’, i.e. Fellows, who have responsibilities for teaching within the College. In certain smaller subjects, where there is not a Teaching Fellow in the relevant subject area, the College will appoint an External Director of Studies who will usually have an affiliation with another College but have exactly the same role.

Directors of Studies oversee students’ academic work, advise on lectures, appoint supervisors and monitor students’ progress. Students must attend a meeting with their Director of Studies at the start of each term to ensure that arrangements are in place for supervisions and for attending lectures, practicals and classes in the relevant departments. It is important that students keep in touch with their Directors of Studies throughout the year. Further information about the role of the Director of Studies can be found on MyTrin, together with an up-to-date list of current Directors of Studies. The lists will vary from year to year, particularly in large subjects where the teaching staff will share the responsibility for different groups of students.

9. SUPERVISORS AND SUPERVISIONS

Directors of Studies will normally assign all undergraduates to one or more supervisors. In some subjects, this may be done by the Faculty for those in their third or fourth years. Supervisors provide personal teaching (‘supervisions’) regularly throughout the term. Attendance at supervisions is compulsory and any undergraduates who find themselves unable to attend at the times arranged must inform their Supervisors as early as possible. Undergraduates who fail to attend a supervision without good cause may be fined a sum equivalent to the cost of the supervision missed.

Students must do the prescribed preparation in advance of the supervision, including writing the essays or preparing the sample questions. Supervisors have the right not to supervise a student if the student has not done the prescribed work without good reason. Supervisions are an opportunity for students to ask questions about material they do not understand and to deepen their understanding of the material with the help of supervisors and through engagement with co-supervisees. Active participation is expected from all students in supervisions.

Students are given access to their termly supervision reports online using the CamCORS system. Reports are released to students once they have been seen by Directors of Studies and processed by the Teaching Office.

CamCORS: https://camcors.cam.ac.uk/camcors

10. STUDENT FEEDBACK

Students are invited to give feedback on their studies and on the College’s academic provision by completing an online teaching and learning questionnaire at the end of the Michaelmas and Lent Terms.

Student feedback on teaching provision in College is essential in monitoring and, where necessary, improving the teaching and learning environment of the College. The online questionnaire is brief and students are encouraged to complete it honestly and constructively.

Students who have concerns about supervisions or any other aspect of their academic work should discuss these with their supervisor or Director of Studies, or if appropriate, with their Tutor.

11. EXAMINATIONS

All undergraduate courses at the University of Cambridge lead to a single degree, the Bachelor of Arts. When you graduate, providing you pass the necessary examinations, you will be awarded a BA Hons. In Engineering, Mathematics, Computer Science and some Natural Sciences subjects, you can study for a fourth year and obtain a second degree in addition to your BA; these integrated masters courses lead to either a Master of Natural Sciences (MSci), Master of Mathematics (MMath), or Master of Engineering (MEng).

All Cambridge courses are assessed through examinations in broad subject areas called Triposes. Each Tripos is divided into one or more Parts and you need to complete a number of Parts in one or more Triposes to qualify for the BA degree. In certain subjects, you may take preliminary examinations. No official class is assigned to the overall degree issued by the University of Cambridge. Instead, each Part of a Tripos is self-contained and you obtain separate results for each one; there is no averaging out for a final degree. When you graduate, your degree certificate will not state the subject(s) that you have studied. You do not, for example, get a BA in History but you could take a Part I in the Historical Tripos and a Part II in the Historical Tripos and thus qualify for the BA degree.

It is a College requirement that every undergraduate should sit and pass a Tripos (or in some cases a Preliminary examination) each year. The main examination season occurs in the Easter Term and runs over a period roughly from mid-May through to the first ten days or so of June. Some subjects have examinations throughout the course of the year.

Examination registration requires students to complete a simple online process. The Tutorial Office will send out instructions during Michaelmas Term.

The University provides students with a comprehensive transcript to supplement the degree certificate awarded at graduation. Further information about transcripts and degree certificates may be found on the University website.

12. PLAGIARISM

The following extract is taken from the University’s statement on plagiarism, at: www.plagiarism.admin.cam.ac.uk/what-plagiarism/students-responsibilities

It is every student’s responsibility to:

• Read, and ensure that you understand, the University-wide Statement on plagiarism [www.plagiarism.admin.cam.ac.uk/what-plagiarism/universitys-definition-plagiarism] which defines plagiarism and the forms that it can take. The statement follows the Regulations for discipline in Statutes and Ordinances.

• Familiarise yourself with guidance issued by your faculty or department which outlines the referencing techniques and other academic conventions that you will be expected to adhere to. This will be given to you in your handbook or other induction materials, but if you are in doubt ask your Director of Studies or Tutor.
• Ensure that you always follow these conventions, and ask for clarification or support if you need it from your Director of Studies or Tutor. If in doubt about any aspect of academic integrity it is always best to seek clarification at an early stage.

The University’s Resources and support pages [www.plagiarism.admin.cam.ac.uk/resources-and-support] give information about the various referencing conventions in use at Cambridge and guidance on good academic practice and sources of support.

13. SCHOLARS

Undergraduates who perform particularly well in examinations may be elected into Junior, Senior or Research Scholarships, and these Scholarships carry with them certain privileges (for example with respect to room entitlement and residence).

14. THE DEAN’S COMMITTEE

This Committee is chaired by the Dean of College, who is the Fellow most immediately concerned with maintaining discipline, and consists of four Tutors and six other Fellows. The Dean’s Committee will consider individually cases of poor examination performance, and may require that a student whose record of work has been unsatisfactory, or whose result is weak, shall not return into residence. In particular an undergraduate who is not classed in an examination is not permitted to return into residence unless the College Council, on the recommendation of the Dean’s Committee or on appeal by the student concerned, decides otherwise. Furthermore, when the work of a student is found to be unsatisfactory, the case may be referred by the relevant Director of Studies for review by the Dean’s Committee. The Committee may require students to explain their poor performance, either in writing or in person. If students encounter difficulties or obstacles that are preventing them from concentrating on their studies, they should discuss them promptly with their Tutor.
Welfare & Wellbeing

15. TUTORS

Every student has a Tutor, who is a College Fellow who looks after the general welfare of their students. All students belong to a ‘Side’, and each Side is under the care of a Fellow who is designated a Tutor. Those who enter the College as postgraduates, having completed their undergraduate degree elsewhere are placed on Side F under the care of one of the Tutors for Advanced Students, while those who enter the College as undergraduates are allocated to Sides A–E and G, H and J. Students keep the same Tutor throughout their time in College, allowing Tutors to maintain a close interest in their students’ academic progress and welfare, offering advice and encouragement. Tutors are Teaching Fellows but, as far as is practicable, work in a different academic field to their students. Their role is to act as advisor on personal as well as general academic matters. Their experience not only as Tutors, but also as Directors of Studies in another subject, provides them with a broad understanding of how the College and the University operates.

Students routinely meet with their Tutors for a group meeting (called a ‘harangue’) at the start of each term and have a brief ‘exeat’ meeting at the end of each term. In addition, Tutors are available during tutorial hours each weekday during Full Term to allow students to drop in to discuss any issues. Students are encouraged to make the most of this and to get to know their Tutors well.

Tutorial Administrators assist Tutors in their College responsibilities by providing high-level administrative support and offering advice on student welfare matters. They are often the first point of contact for a student. The Tutorial Offices are located in Staircase N, New Court.

16. HEALTH PROVISION

There is a range of support and advice available to students at Trinity both within the College and more broadly within the University. Whilst students are encouraged to speak to their Tutors about any concerns they may have, they are supported by tutorial staff and others, below, who can provide further information or relevant expertise.
The Porters
- In the event of an emergency, please contact the Porters on 01223 338400.
- The Porters’ Lodge is staffed 24/7 throughout the year.
- Porters are first aid trained and can assess a medical situation.
- Porters can despatch people to hospital by taxi if necessary without awaiting the arrival of paramedics, especially since there can be considerable delays if the Ambulance Service assess the incident as not life-threatening.

Registering with a GP in Cambridge
It is important you register locally with a GP (general practitioner): that way you can receive emergency care if you need it and access health services quickly and easily while you’re at University. This is especially important if you have an ongoing health condition such as asthma, diabetes or epilepsy.

Cambridge GPs are experienced in dealing with students, and also in working with the University and Colleges. This is important if you are ill in the lead up to, or during your examinations and you need special exam arrangements or allowances to be made. You can choose to register with any local surgery. All new students are given information about registering with a GP and the College Nurse can give further details.

The College Nurse
The College Nurse is available to offer help to students regarding physical health concerns. Students can book an appointment or drop in to the Health Centre, B Neville’s Court, during surgery hours (Full Term only).

If you wish to be visited by the nurse, either:
- leave a message on the Surgery answerphone (tel. 01223 338471),
- call the Porters, or
- email surgery@trin.cam.ac.uk.

The Mental Health and Wellbeing Advisor
The College Mental Health and Wellbeing Advisor offers specialist support and advice to all students regarding any mental health or wellbeing related issue. She is available throughout the year, Monday to Friday from 9:00 to 17:00. Students can contact her directly to arrange an appointment at mha@trin.cam.ac.uk or telephone: 01223 747505. With their consent, students may also be referred by their Tutor, College Counsellor or College Nurse. If the situation requires a more urgent response, appointments can be arranged during the evenings or weekends.
The College Counsellor

The College Counsellor provides a confidential counselling service for all undergraduate and postgraduate students during Full Term. Counselling offers an opportunity to talk about personal issues in a private and relaxed setting with a counsellor who is independent of the College. She offers counselling appointments on Mondays 11:00–14:00 and Fridays 14:00–17:00. If you would like to book an appointment with her, you can email her at counsellor@trin.cam.ac.uk or leave her a voicemail on 01223 761532, and she will get back to you as soon as she can.

Where a student wishes particularly to talk over a problem with a woman, the College Nurse, Mental Health and Wellbeing Advisor and College Counsellor are very willing to help. Additionally, the College has appointed a woman Fellow to act as Fellow for Trinity Women and she, too, may be consulted. To arrange an appointment, email womensadvisor@trin.cam.ac.uk.

In addition to the College health and welfare provision, students can also have access to the University Counselling Service (UCS), University Disability Resource Centre (DRC) and Cambridge University Students Union (CUSU). The College’s own Student Unions (TCSU and the BA Society) also have student welfare officers.

Please visit MyTrin – www.trin.cam.ac.uk/health – for information on these and other services.

17. DRUGS

Any member of the College suffering physically or mentally from drug-taking is urged to seek early advice. The Tutors are always ready to give personal advice and help to their students. Any member of the College who is concerned about their drug use can consult their General Practitioners in confidence, or for specialist support and intervention can contact Cambridge Inclusion, 0300 555 0101, www.talktofrank.com/treatment-centre/inclusion-drug-service-cambridge.

Members of the College are reminded that:
(a) it is dangerous to take drugs other than under medical direction;
(b) unauthorised possession of drugs, including cannabis, listed in the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 is a criminal offence.

The College will not tolerate the unauthorised possession or use of any such drugs within the College or by members of the College. In particular, and apart from any legal consequences, any member found to have supplied anyone with such a drug, or to have knowingly assisted anyone to obtain illegal possession of such a drug, will be liable to expulsion from the College. The College will not protect a student from the due processes of the Law.

(c) it is also a criminal offence to produce, supply, offer to supply, possess with intent to supply and to import or export certain psychoactive substances (so-called ‘legal highs’) which are proscribed under the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016.

Although possession of such substances for personal use and personal consumption is not a criminal offence under the Act, members of College who possess for their own use and/or who consume psychoactive substances on College premises or who facilitate such use will also be subject to disciplinary action.

18. ALCOHOL

Excessive drinking and its consequences have become a nationwide concern. The College urges everyone who chooses to drink alcohol to do so responsibly and not to abuse it. Any College event, including dinner in Hall, should be enjoyable and civilized for all present, and this can only happen if individuals take responsibility for their own behaviour. Diners must exercise restraint and not drink to excess; hosts should look after their guests and friends look after one another; and everybody should show consideration towards staff. Organisers of student events should always ensure that there is plenty of good quality, alcohol-free drinks. A strong social emphasis on alcohol can be insensitive to those who choose not to drink it. Competitive drinking games (such as pennying) are strictly forbidden. Those who condone, encourage, or force others to drink to excess, especially if there is any element of intimidation or bullying, will come under the serious scrutiny of the Dean. Drunkenness is not a defence, and will not be accepted as a mitigating circumstance for misconduct.

College staff have a responsibility to ensure that College members and their guests do not drink to excess; those who do will be refused further service and may be asked to leave the College Bar or Hall. It is illegal for staff to serve someone who is clearly inebriated.
Alcohol is an addictive drug and there is strong evidence that abuse of alcohol and alcohol dependency may stem from drinking in order to relieve stress, anxiety and depressive thoughts. Alcohol is a depressant and can exacerbate pre-existing depressive conditions as well as precipitate them. If your drinking habits are affecting your life and work, then you should ask for help with the issues underlying your drinking. Your Tutor will be able to offer you advice on ways to access further support.

For further information on the effects of alcohol and sources of support, see the College’s Guidance on Sensible Drinking (see Appendix B).

Communication

19. COLLEGE NOTICES

Email is the most frequent method used by Tutors, Directors of Studies and College staff to communicate important information. Students must check their (@cam) Cambridge email regularly to ensure requests or instructions are responded to in a timely manner.

Electronic Screens are in various locations around College including Porters’ Lodge, the Servery and the Tutorial Office. The College now uses digital signage to communicate news and other important information to students.

MyTrin, the College’s intranet system, gives access to a variety of resources and information about the College, such as arrangements for meetings with Tutors and Directors of Studies, the timeline and procedures for examination enrolment, and information about awards and prizes throughout the year. An improvement project will develop the intranet in 2019–2020.

Noticeboards are opposite the entrance to Hall, inside the entrance to Whewell’s Court (opposite the Great Gate), at Burrell’s Field Porters’ Lodge, and inside the entrance to the Wolfson Building. They are used to post notices on behalf of College departments and bodies within the University.

Pigeonholes must be checked regularly by students.
Trin.cam.ac.uk features news about the College, the aim being to showcase a variety of activities and achievements on the part of members and staff, as well as information for Trinity’s stakeholders, including prospective students and their parents and teachers, alumni, academics from other institutions, and members of the public. Any suggestions of news for the College website are welcome – please contact the Head of Communications, communications@trin.cam.ac.uk

20. CONSULTATION BETWEEN JUNIOR AND SENIOR MEMBERS

The Liaison Committee (the President and other Trinity College Students’ Union representatives, the President of the BA Society, other BA Society representatives, the Senior Tutor, the Dean of College and Bursars) meets regularly to discuss matters affecting students. Members of the Welfare Team meet regularly with student representatives to discuss welfare matters and the Senior Tutor is always ready to discuss any matter raised by students.

Graduate Students

Tutorial arrangements

Graduate students on Side F (i.e. those who were admitted after completing their undergraduate degree elsewhere) are supported by two Tutors for Advanced Students, while those who were previously undergraduates at Trinity, and referred to as BA students, remain on their original tutorial sides. Both groups of graduate students come together as part of the College’s BA Society (known as the MCR in most other colleges).

Residence

Graduate students must keep a specific number of terms of residence and of research as defined by the University’s Statutes and Ordinances. It is accepted that due to the nature of graduate study, there may be times in which you will need to be away from Cambridge. These University webpages provide further details which all graduate students should read carefully:

www.cambridgestudents.cam.ac.uk/new-students/manage-your-student-information/graduate-students/terms-study
The University requires that all students ‘keep’ three terms of residence (as described in section 3) before they can be awarded any degree. Additionally, graduate students must complete the number of terms of research appropriate to the degrees they are taking (e.g. nine terms in the case of research for a full-time PhD, fifteen terms for a part-time PhD). Terms of research for full-time degrees must be completed in Cambridge unless permission has been granted for a student to work away. Residence during a term is normally taken as evidence of a term of research, provided that work is carried out to the satisfaction of the appropriate Degree Committee. No College and University fees are payable on account of this residence and normal accommodation charges apply.

The Accommodation Handbook (see under www.trin.cam.ac.uk/accommodation_handbook) gives detailed information about room allocation, charges etc. For those living in graduate hostels and College flats, it should be noted that these are managed for the College under contract by Bidwells. Allocations are decided by the Accommodation Office, but all practical matters should be discussed with the Bidwells representative.

Status
Students pursuing research studies and advanced courses are normally granted BA status if they are under 24 years of age, and MA status if they are 24 years of age or over.

The BA Dinners are usually held on Fridays during Term and are open to all members of the BA Society, including associate members and mature students. Tickets are booked through UpayChilli (section 55) from ten days before the dinner up to three days before the dinner, and you may additionally book for up to two guests, who must be aged 18 or over. No changes (dietary requirements, cancellations) can be made after this period. Additional guests may be applied for by e-mail to the Head of Catering, via upay@trin.cam.ac.uk, at least ten days in advance of the dinner. Members must present their University ID card when entering Hall and all guests must have ID. Dress code is smart and gowns are required for Trinity members (section 4). Prices are detailed in a separate circular on catering arrangements. For more information, including details on group seating arrangements, visit http://basociety.net/ba-dinners.

The BA Rooms serve as common rooms for graduate students and are located on ‘I’ staircase, Great Court. A television is available. Access to these rooms will be added to the University Cards of all eligible students by the Accommodation Office.

Grants
Graduate students wishing to attend conferences or travel in connection with research may be eligible for grants from the Rouse Ball Research/Eddington Fund (section 26). Grants are also available to help you with expenses involved in the typing and binding of Fellowship, PhD or MPhil dissertations – claims should be submitted via the Tutorial Office.

Computers
Subject to availability, and to a scheme of priorities, personal computers may be borrowed by students who are in the last stages of preparing a dissertation, and who do not have adequate word processing facilities in their University Departments.

Junior Research Fellowship Competition
Graduate students completing their PhD may wish to consider applying for a Junior Research Fellowship (JRF). This provides an opportunity to spend up to four years in Cambridge undertaking post-doctoral research or scholarly work at an early stage of an academic career; this research may be on a topic essentially of the Fellow’s own choice, though for an experimental scientist suitable arrangements must be made with one of the laboratories in the University. Further information about eligibility and the application process is available on the website at: www.trin.cam.ac.uk/applying/jrf

Financial Welfare

21. STUDENT SUPPORT
As well as dealing with the academic side of life, each student needs to manage their own finances. For Home and EU undergraduate students a major source of support will be a Student Loan and, in some cases, a Cambridge Bursary will also be available (section 22, below). For Overseas undergraduate students some balance between family support and various bursaries is likely to have been arranged.
There is detailed information about financial support on the University website at:

- Home/EU:
  www.undergraduate.study.cam.ac.uk/fees-and-finance/financial-support
- Overseas:
  www.undergraduate.study.cam.ac.uk/international-students/financial-support

For postgraduate students studying Masters courses, UK Government Postgraduate Loans of up to £10,906 are available to some Home and EU students. Postgraduate Doctoral Loans of up to £25,700 are also available. These loans are administered by the Student Loans Company. Further information can be found at: https://www.gov.uk/postgraduate-loan

In all cases when advice is needed on financial matters (including problems in setting up a bank account, changes in financial circumstances or seeking funding for specific projects), you should not hesitate to consult your Tutor.

For all students, Trinity has a range of various funds available to support or reward particular activities – see Prizes, Travel & Exchanges for information.

22. CAMBRIDGE BURSARIES

If you are a UK or EU undergraduate student with a household income of below £42,620 then you are likely to be eligible for a Cambridge Bursary of up to £3,500 per year (2019–2020 figures). The Cambridge Bursary is in addition to any loan for maintenance or tuition fees which students are eligible to receive from the UK government and it does not need to be repaid. Assessment for a Cambridge Bursary is carried out automatically by the Student Loans Company as part of students’ applications for financial assistance from the UK Government. It is important that you supply the Student Loans Company with all the information they request, particularly correct bank details; any bursary awarded will be paid to your UK bank account in termly instalments.

Details of the scheme are available at:
www.admin.cam.ac.uk/univ/cambridgebursary
23. BOOK ALLOWANCES

Students are entitled to a book allowance of £75 for each year in which they are paying University fees. If they have underspent in one year, the balance may be carried forward to the following year. Students will receive an individual claim form at the start of the Michaelmas Term confirming the total amount available to them for that particular year (including any balance brought forward).

Completed claim forms, with receipts signed by the Director of Studies/Research Supervisor/Tutor as appropriate, must be submitted to Tutorial Administrators. Claims can be made at the end of any Full Term during the year. Payments cannot be made to students who are out of residence but they may keep any receipts for book purchases and claim when they return into residence.

Prizes, Travel & Exchanges

Trinity offers a number of prizes and grants to students for a wide range of purposes, some of which provide travel opportunities.

Most of this funding has been gifted to Trinity by past Members or as a means of commemorating past Members; the College is grateful for all such support.

There are several exchange schemes in place with universities in Europe, China and the USA (one student per exchange). The studentships for each scheme cover fees, maintenance and travel costs.

Awards available are outlined below; for further information, how to apply and closing dates, see MyTrin – www.trin.cam.ac.uk/tutorial/prizes.

College Policies

Certain College Policies are outlined below. Full copies of all the College Policies, Codes of Practice and Procedures, including our responsibilities under the ‘Prevent’ duty, can be found on the College website and/or on MyTrin.

Underpinning these policies is the College’s Policy on Dignity and Respect. Trinity College is committed to protecting the dignity of students and staff as members of its community in their work, their study, and their interactions with each other. The College is committed to maintaining a learning, living, and working environment in which the rights and dignity of all members of the College community are respected. The College expects all members of its community to treat each other, as well as members of the University and the wider community, with respect, courtesy and consideration at all times. All members of this community have the right to expect such behaviour from others, and a corresponding responsibility to behave in this way towards others.

28. Data Protection

It may be necessary to process personal data, whether held on an IT system or otherwise, under the terms of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018. Processing may be the responsibility of the University, the College or the individual member, depending on the purpose for which the data is held. The Statutory Data Protection Officer is the Office of Intercollegiate Services (OIS). The College’s Data Protection Lead is the Junior Bursar who will provide a copy of the College Data Protection Policy on request; the policy is also to be found on the College website.

29. Student Complaints

If you wish to make a complaint about the College’s services or staff, either academic or non-academic, you should consult the Code of Practice for Student Complaints which is published on MyTrin.
30. HARASSMENT

Harassment of any kind, whether on grounds of race, sex or sexual orientation, political or religious conviction or otherwise, has no place in the College community.

In line with the University, the College defines harassment as single or repeated incidents involving unwanted or unwarranted conduct towards another person which it is reasonable to think would have the effect of (i) violating that person’s dignity or (ii) creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating, or offensive environment for that person.

Harassment may be verbal, psychological or physical, in person or via a virtual platform or through other methods of contact. Harassment may occur in the course of an academic, sporting, social, cultural or other activity either within the Precincts of the University, College, or elsewhere in the context of a person’s membership of the University, or in circumstances where the victim of the harassment is a member, officer, or employee of the University or a College.

Unacceptable behaviour, whether intentional or not, can take a variety of different forms. The following descriptions are not exhaustive, but give an indication of the types of behaviour that the University and the College consider to be unacceptable:

- making sexually offensive comments about dress or appearance, the display or distribution of sexually explicit material, or demands for sexual favours;
- engaging in harassment on the grounds of a person’s sexuality (or assumptions about a person’s sexuality) including making derogatory homophobic, transphobic or biphobic remarks or jokes aimed at a particular person, offensive comments relating to a person’s sexuality, refusal to acknowledge a person’s gender or identity, or threats to disclose a person’s sexuality to others;
- making offensive references to a person’s race, ethnicity, skin colour, religion or nationality, dress, culture, background or customs;
- ignoring, disparaging or ridiculing a person because of assumptions about their capabilities, or making offensive reference to an individual’s appearance, in the context of their disability;
- controlling or coercive behaviour, such as pressure to subscribe to a particular political or religious belief;
- intimidating, offensive or graphic posts on social media sites or chat rooms, or communications by email, text or instant messaging.
Any incident of harassment may result in disciplinary action, which may lead in serious cases to removal of the offending party from employment or office in the College or being sent down. Where the person responsible for the harassment is in a position of authority over or responsibility for the person harassed, that will be regarded as a serious aggravating feature of the case. Being under the influence of alcohol, drugs or other substances will not be accepted as an excuse.

Those who have been affected by such actions will find sympathetic support and advice from Tutors, the Fellow for Trinity Women, the Chaplains and the Dean of Chapel, the College Nurse, or the College Counsellor. Further information on sources of support may be found on the College website.

If at any stage students feel that they are being disadvantaged or are suffering reprisal from any member of the College, including the person they have made a complaint about, as a result of complaining about harassment or sexual misconduct, they should seek guidance from their Tutor about reporting the matter to the Dean.

31. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

The College will take very seriously any allegations of sexual misconduct. Allegations of serious sexual misconduct against a Junior Member will normally be referred to the University’s Office of Student Conduct, Complaint and Appeals. Details of the University Procedure are available from the University website. Students wishing to make a complaint against another student are urged to discuss their various options and possible implications of such options with their Tutors.

Sexual misconduct includes the following, whether or not within a sexual or romantic relationship, including where consent to some form of sexual activity has been given and then withdrawn, or even where consent has been given on previous occasions:

- sexual intercourse or engaging in a sexual act without consent;
- attempting to engage in sexual intercourse or engaging in a sexual act without consent;
- sharing private sexual materials of another person without consent;
- kissing without consent;
- touching inappropriately through clothes without consent;
- inappropriate showing sexual organs to another person;
- repeatedly following another person without good reason.
Students should note that a person who is incapacitated through drink or for any other reason is unable to give consent.

The College’s Student Crisis Advisor will be able to offer specialised advice and support to students who have been victims of such actions. They will find sympathetic support from Tutors, the Fellow for Trinity Women, the Chaplains, the Dean of Chapel, the College Nurse, and the College Counsellor. Further information on sources of support may be found on the College’s website.

Sexual assault and rape are criminal offences, and students will be supported to come to an informed decision as to whether to report such an incident to the Police. However, if students decide not to report the incident to the Police, the College will not require them to do so. No inferences will be drawn from a student’s decision not to report the incident to the Police.

If a disciplinary case arises which in the view of the Dean of College is serious, the Dean of College will ask the College Council to appoint a Disciplinary Committee under Statute XXXVII to hear the case.

32. Fitness to Study

The College has a series of procedures that can be applied if there is any question as to the fitness of a student to proceed with their studies. There are a variety of circumstances when this may be activated, including cases related to eating disorders, for which the college refers to the guidance issued by HEOPS. Sometimes fitness will be a matter of physical state (for instance some protracted or severe illness). It could be the mental or social state of the student, or it might relate to circumstances arising in the student’s family or surroundings that could have a significant impact on their ability to study effectively. Cases may be raised directly by a student, by their friends, by a supervisor, Director of Studies or Tutor or be relayed from elsewhere in the University.

The College understands students with mental health conditions are often highly aware of their difficulties and needs, that they act responsibly in seeking help, and that doing so is right; and that asking for help does not necessarily engage this more formal process of assessment. Occasionally a situation that would normally have been considered cause for a disciplinary hearing of some sort will be judged to call for pastoral rather than punitive action and will be fed into this scheme.

The overriding aim of Trinity’s procedures is to find a balance so that proper support is put in place for students to enable them to fulfil their potential while not allowing potential disruption or distraction to go untreated. Students should be given a clear understanding of the routes open to them to enable them to fulfil their potential and the procedures that the College and University will apply when dealing with them. To this end the scheme is described in terms of three stages:

Stage 1 normally commences when a potential cause for concern is raised, often by others. In extreme or urgent cases it will be possible to escalate instantly to Stages 2 or 3. Stage 1 attempts to maintain as informal a style as possible: the student will meet with his or her Tutor and will have an opportunity to discuss why issues of fitness to study have been raised. In some cases, at the end of such a meeting all will end up reassured and no further action will be needed, but more often some equally informal follow-up will be established to confirm that whatever gave rise to concern has been resolved. The Tutor will be able to explain University options (e.g. sometimes the availability of the Disability Resource Centre or Counselling Service, sometimes the procedures for special arrangements for sitting exams, or for seeking examination allowances). If all parties are satisfied this may complete the proceedings, but any case of disagreement or for issues that prove difficult to resolve at that level either the student or the College can escalate the case to Stage 2.

Stage 2 is similar in intent to Stage 1, and happens entirely within the College, but involves a small panel who can take representations from the student and collect reports from others who may be involved. Its discussions will be recorded and the object of the exercise is to bring in some independent but experienced voices and seek ways in which whatever might have been disrupting or seeing to disrupt the student’s progress or ability to function fully in the College environment are resolved so as to allow the student to proceed through their course and graduate successfully.

If problems remain beyond Stage 2 the College will take advantage of a University-wide scheme which is broadly similar in structure to Stage 2 but that is (a) further independent of the College and hence may be valuable if there could be seen to be any conflicts of interest arising in any internal process and (b) has stronger ultimate powers to enforce solutions in extreme cases, up to and including excluding a student from the University either on a temporary or permanent basis. It is anticipated that rather few cases will reach this level.
Incoming undergraduates are sent a copy of the University’s explanation of their part of this scheme (i.e. basically Stage 3) as part of the Terms of Admission. There are also some long notes of guidance for those who administer the scheme, which cover such issues as the ability of a student involved in one of the more formal meetings to bring along a supporter (for instance a CUSU officer as well as or as an alternative to their Tutor). But the scheme, as a whole applies to all students (both graduates and undergraduates) as well as to exchange students, students while on their year abroad and so on. It should be stressed that the Fitness to Study procedures are seen as part of the provision of pastoral care within the College and University and not as any form of disciplinary process, and that it is very much hoped that what is called ‘Stage 1’ here in fact reflects what has been current practice for many years – with now the stages beyond that merely codifying how a Tutor can escalate issues that they have found intractable or a student can appeal against outcomes there that do not satisfy them.

The full Fitness to Study procedure can be found on MyTrin.

33. FITNESS TO PRACTISE (MEDICAL STUDENTS)

The Medical and Veterinary courses at Cambridge, as at other UK Universities, is covered by Fitness to Practise procedures. Student doctors are studying for a degree that will automatically allow them to register provisionally as a medical professional. During their studies, they work within this professional environment and the General Medical Council (GMC) expects them to behave in a manner appropriate to their future role. The standards of behaviour expected of them are set out in a guidance published by the GMC and Medical Schools Council; students receive a copy of the guidance and the notes on the legal status of students when they join the University.

The Fitness to Practise procedures are set out in full on the University website at: https://www.biology.cam.ac.uk/exams/MedVetSTexams/monitor

This also sets out a less formal mechanism for monitoring the progress of medical students. The Medical and Veterinary Student Progress Panel backs up the College tutorial and pastoral system by maintaining a general overview of medical and veterinary student progression throughout both the preclinical and clinical course. It also monitors the cases of students who, for one reason or another, may be having problems with the course. This may be because of illness, personal difficulties or due to repeated examination failures. The Panel consists of senior members of the Faculty of Biology, School of Clinical Medicine and Department of Veterinary Medicine together with College tutorial representatives. In co-operation with Colleges, the Panel reviews student cases, with a view to offering advice and support for students who are encountering difficulties with the course. The committee is not a disciplinary body, and is set up to provide support for students and Colleges. Its basic remit is to try to ensure that students have a timely and, as far as possible, trouble free progress through the course.
Accommodation

34. COLLEGE ROOMS

Trinity currently aims to provide accommodation for all undergraduate students for the duration of their course and for postgraduate students during the first three years of their course. For further information about living in College accommodation, including details of the room ballot process, please refer to the Accommodation Handbook.

Students living in College accommodation are expected to show respect for the environment in which they live and show due consideration for their neighbours and those working in the College.

Students should not undertake activities in their room which may disturb their neighbours; when one resident wishes to relax or unwind, another may be trying to study. They are only permitted to play musical instruments, radios, televisions, DVD players, record/CD players, computers or any other means of sound reproduction in their room between the hours of 13:00 and 22:00 provided all appropriate doors and windows are closed and never in such a way as to cause annoyance to others. The use of earphones rather than loudspeakers is encouraged. Pianos and percussion instruments are not permitted in student rooms. For further details, see the Accommodation Handbook. Cases of serious or persistent inconsiderate behaviour will be reported to the Dean of College and may result in withdrawal of College accommodation.
35. UNIVERSITY CARDS

All students are issued with a University Card by the University Card Office through the College’s Accommodation Office. This card is used by the College for the following purposes:

Opening doors controlled by SALTO locks
Access points in and out of the College, and into certain facilities within the College, are controlled via the SALTO electronic lock system. All Trinity students will have their University Card programmed to give access to the relevant doors and facilities. It is possible to interrogate the SALTO system to establish which cards were used to operate a particular lock at a given time, although the College does not routinely monitor this data. However, in the event of a breach of security or any other cause for serious concern, the College reserves the right to scrutinise the SALTO system. For details of when the College gates are open, please refer to the Accommodation Handbook.

Swiping in/out of College
Students are required to ‘swipe in/out’ with their University Card at the Porters’ Lodge whenever they arrive/leave College such that the College has an accurate record of which rooms are occupied. This information is used to monitor the residency requirements of the University (section 3) and also serves as a record of attendance for Student Finance and others.

Students will also need their University Card for Catering purposes and Library access (sections 45 and 59).

Replacement University Cards should be ordered via the Accommodation Office, Z Angel Court. The University Card Office will usually charge the College £10 for a replacement card unless the circumstances requiring replacement are clearly beyond the student’s control. This charge will be passed on to the student via their College bill.

36. MAIL & PIGEONHOLES

Post
The letter boxes around the College are cleared at regular intervals during the day.
Mail is delivered within College to student mailrooms at about 11.00 and 17.00 on weekdays, during Term. There are two mailrooms in College (E Great Court and Burrell’s Field Porters’ Lodge). If you are a graduate student living outside College you should also check your pigeonhole frequently as mail addressed to you at Trinity College will not be forwarded to Graduate hostels outside College. Student letters cannot be delivered beyond the walls of the College, but there is a limited inter-College service run by the Cambridge University Students’ Union, for which the collection point is the Great Gate Porters’ Lodge.

Mail delivered via Royal Mail during the vacations may be redirected to a mailing address in the UK. Mail will not normally be redirected overseas.

37. LOCKERS & LAUNDERETTES

Lockers available at King’s Hostel (D Great Court) are intended primarily for use by those living in graduate hostels. You may book lockers at the Porters’ Lodge for a rent of £2.50 per term and a £2.50 deposit on the key, but the College cannot accept any responsibility for items stored in them.

There are launderettes in Angel Court, Bishop’s Hostel, Whewell’s Court, Pearce Hostel and Burrell’s Field; laundry cards are obtainable from the Porters’ Lodges. See Accommodation Handbook for further information.

38. MAINTENANCE & REPAIR

The Works Department is responsible for the routine maintenance and repair of the College buildings, employing small teams of electricians, plumbers, carpenters, painters and non-tradesmen. Where specialist maintenance is required, approved contractors are used.

Reporting faults – students should report any faults or repairs required to the Works Department using the Work Order Request application on the MyTrin website. Please see section 8 of the Accommodation Handbook for further information.
Health & Safety

39. FIRE SAFETY

The College occupies a significant part of Cambridge City centre, with many old buildings, and also residential accommodation above shops used by the general public. The College works closely with the Cambridgeshire Fire and Rescue Service to minimise the risk of fire.

On first arrival at Trinity College, all students must attend the Fire Safety talk given by the Cambridge Fire and Rescue Service. It is a legal requirement that this briefing is provided to all those residing in College. If for exceptional reasons you are unable to attend, you should contact the Head Porter to arrange a separate briefing.

Students should familiarise themselves with evacuation drills and respond promptly when they hear the fire alarm. Failure to do so will be reported to the Dean of College and cases of repeated or serious breach of fire-drill procedures may result in further awareness training, fines or withdrawal of College accommodation.

Tampering with College fire equipment (alarms, detectors, extinguishers etc.) puts lives at risk. Any student found to have done so will be fined £100 immediately, irrespective of any other penalties imposed by the Dean of College or any charges (e.g. for replacement or repair) applied by the Junior Bursar.

40. SMOKING POLICY

The College has fully implemented the Smoke-free legislation that came into force on 1 July 2007. There is a total ban on smoking in College by anyone. This covers anything that can be smoked such as cigarettes, cigars, shisha and herbal cigarettes and covers all rooms (including all student rooms) and buildings within the College. Accordingly, students of the College, and their guests, wishing to smoke must do so in the designated smoking areas, which are:

- The path around Scholars' Lawn

Meetings & Events

41. INDIVIDUALS HOSTING EVENTS IN COLLEGE

Dinners, parties or meetings may only be held by students with the permission of their Tutors, and in certain cases, of the Dean as well. There are rules as to the size and duration of such gatherings in order to ensure that they do not disrupt the peace of other members. In cases where more than a certain number of persons will be present, the host is required to hire the services of Porters to be in attendance. For parties taking place in student rooms, the Head Porter will determine the permissible number of participants in light of Fire Safety Regulations. Parties are not permitted during the examination period in the Easter Term. All events in the College’s Public Rooms organised by students must end no later than 23:30 (including time to tidy up).

Details of the forms, deadlines and signatures required for events may be found on the Dean’s page on MyTrin.

• If the event is to take place in a student room, and if more than ten people will be present, an application form must be completed and then signed by the student’s Tutor.
• For a party held jointly in neighbouring rooms on the same staircase or corridor, one student should be designated the organiser responsible for the entire event, and obtain a Tutorial signature on the relevant form.

Applicants must notify their neighbours about the event and ensure that they are not disturbed. The form signed by the Tutor must be handed in to the Head Porter at least 24 hours in advance of the event. The Head Porter should be consulted about Fire Safety Procedures and his decision about the number of people permitted to attend is final.
Except with the permission of the Head of Catering, the Old Kitchen, Allhusen Room and Private Supply Room are reserved for dinner, lunch and drinks parties or other catering services provided by the Catering Department. All enquiries about the Old Kitchen, Allhusen Room and Private Supply Room must be made initially to the Bookings Manager at catering@trin.cam.ac.uk. You must also obtain permission from your Tutor and, if necessary, from the Dean (Section 2 of Appendix A).

42. SOCIETY EVENTS AND SPEAKER MEETINGS IN PUBLIC ROOMS OF THE COLLEGE

A College society recognised by the Amalgamated Clubs Committee or a Cambridge University society recognised by the Junior Proctor may book the Winstanley Lecture Theatre, Old Combination Room (OCR), Junior Parlour, Wolfson Seminar Rooms (North and South), Adrian House Seminar Room or Butler House Party Room during Full Term for an event. The organiser should be a committee member of the society who has attended the Dean’s induction and must be present throughout the meeting. No charge will be made for the hire of the room for a Trinity student society whereas Cambridge University societies will be charged for the use of the room. Cambridge University societies are limited to one booking in any term. All enquiries about these Public Rooms must be made initially to the Accommodation Office no later than one full week in advance of a planned event.

All society bookings of the OCR require the permission of the Junior Bursar; additionally, if the OCR is hired by a Cambridge University society, a Trinity Fellow must sponsor and attend the event. If food and drink are to be served in the OCR, these must be purchased from, and served by, the Catering Department.

- If alcohol is to be consumed in a Public Room of the College at an event organised by a student, the alcohol must be purchased from the Catering Department, and the applicant must sign a declaration.
- If music is to be played in a Public Room, this is to be stated on the Booking Form and approved by the Junior Bursar.
- If the event involves a speaker, the organiser must complete an online form about the event and the speaker. All organisers of speaker events should consult the College’s Code of Practice with respect to Freedom of Speech (see Appendix A).
Recruitment Events
The College is willing to consider requests, either direct from external commercial entities or through Fellows, Alumni or College societies, for recruitment events to be held in College for such entities. Each such request will be considered on its individual merits by the Junior Bursar, consulting the Senior Tutor and Dean of College as appropriate. Where permission is given, the standard external charge will apply for the facilities provided, irrespective of whether the request comes direct or through a member of College or College society.

42a. SHOWING A FILM IN COMMUNAL AREAS OF THE COLLEGE

The College has umbrella licences for screening films in communal areas of the College (MPLC and Filmbank) for members of the College on the following conditions:
- No admission fees
- No advertisement to the public
- No outdoor screening
- Quarterly return of the list of films screened
- No films excluded by the licence to be shown

The title and distributor of the film shown must be logged through the Film App on MyTrin.

43. COMMON ROOMS

The Junior Common Room (JCR) and the Burrell's Field Common Room are open to all students and therefore may not be booked by individuals or societies. Societies may not organise activities to take place in these rooms. The Blue Boar Common Room is bookable through TCSU under certain conditions. The BA Society Rooms are reserved for graduate students (see Graduate Students, page 24).
44. HOW TO BOOK ROOMS FOR DINNERS, PARTIES AND MEETINGS IN COLLEGE PUBLIC ROOMS

Applications for dinners, parties and other entertainments in the Old Kitchen, Allhusen Room and Private Supply Room may be addressed to the Catering Department via the Bookings Manager at catering@trin.cam.ac.uk. For a dinner, party, or entertainment at which more than 30 people are to be present, the signature of your Tutor must always be obtained. Your Tutor, the Steward or the Head Porter may lower the number of people attending the event in light of Fire Safety regulations. All parties must end no later than 23:30.

Permission from the Head of Catering must be obtained in cases where more than ten people make a prior arrangement to dine together in Formal Hall or at BA Dinners.

Students who wish to book the Winstanley Lecture Theatre, Old Combination Room (OCR), Junior Parlour, Wolfson Seminar Rooms (North & South), Adrian House Seminar Room, or Butler House Party Room on behalf of a student society (registered with the Amalgamated Clubs Committee, if a College society, or with the Junior Proctor, if a University society) should check availability with the Accommodation Office (accommodation@trin.cam.ac.uk) no later than one full week in advance of a planned event. The organiser of the event must be a committee member of the society, must have attended the Dean’s induction and must be present throughout the proposed event. If a room is available, a provisional booking will be made; the student making the booking will then be required to complete a Public Room Booking Form and obtain the relevant signatures before the booking can be confirmed. Completed booking forms must be returned to the Accommodation Office at least three working days before the event. All bookings will be ‘provisional’ until the completed Booking Form (with the required signatures) has been received by the Accommodation Office. Events must not be publicised before the booking has been confirmed; students are thus urged to plan events as early as practicable. All events in the College’s Public Rooms organised by students must end no later than 23:30 (including time to tidy up).

Invited Speakers
If you have invited speaker(s) to your event, you will need to familiarise yourself with the College’s Code of Practice on Freedom of Speech, complete an online speaker form and obtain authorisation from the Dean (Appendix A). The online speaker form must be submitted at least seven days (but preferably much earlier) before the proposed event.

Attendance of Porters
For functions at which more than 30 people are to be present, or if your Tutor, the Steward or the Head Porter so directs, you may be required to make arrangements with the Head Porter for one or more Porters (depending on the number of guests) to attend throughout the party, and any permission for such parties is granted subject to the condition that a sufficient number of Porters is able to attend. A charge of £16.00 per hour before midnight will be made for the attendance of Porters.

Admission Charges
No charge may be made for admission to any party or entertainment in College or a hostel, nor may drinks be sold without permission from the Junior Bursar or the Head of Catering.

Alcohol and the 2003 Licensing Act
The supply of alcohol and provision of regulated entertainment at Trinity College falls under the 2003 Licensing Act, which regulates the supply of alcohol in licensed areas by responsible people. The following areas have been licensed by the City Council:

It is a legal requirement that the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) authorises any event at which alcohol is to be served. The current DPS is the Head of Catering. It is advisable to seek guidance from the DPS regarding your duties and responsibilities at an early stage of planning an event.

Alcohol
If alcohol is to be served at events organised by students in the College’s Public Rooms, it should be purchased from the College’s Catering Department, and a permission form must be signed by the student and counter-signed by the Head of Catering (Licensee). The drinks must only be served during normal bar hours. Any application for extension of these hours must be made in writing at least two weeks in advance. Students intending to serve alcohol at their events should familiarise themselves with the College’s Guidance on Sensible Drinking (Appendix B and on MyTrin).

With the exception of Formal Hall, you may take meals or not, as you please, without ‘signing in’ in advance. You may bring up to two guests without notice at the same charge as you are paying. You will be required to present your University Card at the till for you and your guest(s). Meal charges will be added to your College Bill for the term.

It is a tradition and good custom of the College that smart dress and gowns are worn at Formal Hall and BA Dinners. At all other times when using Hall, students are expected to be properly dressed and fully clothed. The staff will not serve those who are inappropriately dressed, for example in nightclothes or dirty sports kit.

The use of cameras and mobile phones is not permitted in Hall.

If you are confined by illness, you can arrange through your Tutor or the College Nurse for food to be sent either to your room or to the Health Centre.

Eating in Hall is traditionally a central feature of life in a Collegiate University and is one which Trinity values highly. The Steward and the Head of Catering are glad to receive constructive suggestions on catering matters. The best way to bring suggestions to their attention is by writing in the Suggestions Book provided or by contacting the TCSU or BA Society, as appropriate; you are also welcome to approach them directly if you wish. If you have a problem relating to the service in Hall which needs immediate attention, you should speak to the Senior Waiter or the Manager on duty.

(b) Meals out of Full Term
Arrangements for meals out of Full Term will be posted on the Screens located outside of Hall. Normally, term-time arrangements extend a little outside Full Term and to the Long Vacation Term. At other times, lunch is usually available on weekdays.

(c) Private Supply
The kitchens can supply food, wines, beers, spirits, etc., and light refreshments for private parties in College. The Head of Catering is available to offer suggestions for menus. Private parties may also be held in the Private Supply Room (R Great Court which seats 20 people), the Allhusen Room (which seats 28 people) or in the Old Kitchen (which can accommodate up to 70 people). These rooms are usually in heavy demand, and it is advisable to book them well in advance. Written permission is necessary for dinners or parties for more than ten people (section 41).

(d) The Coffee Shop and the Bar
The College Coffee Shop and Bar serves a range of beverages and food options throughout the day. It is located in I Great Court and is open to all members of the College and their guests at the following times in Full Term (these times may vary out of term):
10:00–23:00    Sunday to Thursday
10:00–23:30    Friday and Saturday
(e) College Entertainments
No charge may be made for admission to any party or entertainment in College or a hostel, nor may drinks be sold without permission.

(e) Vegan Meals
The Catering Department is considering ways in which it might become possible in the future to prepare vegan food in the College Kitchens. However, for a number of technical and financial reasons, it is not possible to do this at the present time. The College Council has therefore decided in the interim to exempt undergraduates who are vegans on conscientious grounds from the Kitchen Fixed Charge (section 46). If you wish to apply for exemption, you must, at the beginning of each new term, sign a certificate to say that you will not take meals in Hall, and that you will not eat non-vegan food at all anywhere else. Certificates can be obtained from your Tutor and must be countersigned by them before being presented to the Catering Department. Vegan meals can be supplied on request at the Matriculation Dinner, Graduation Dinner and Commemoration Feast.

46. KITCHEN FIXED CHARGE (KFC)

Unless there is a pressing medical or cultural (e.g. religious) reason why you can never take meals in Hall, a matter which you should discuss with your Tutor, you must, if you are an undergraduate, pay a contribution towards the overhead costs of catering. The charge is currently £187.20 per Term. Graduate students do not have to pay this charge but are charged more than undergraduates for individual dinners and lunches taken. Such students may find it advantageous to elect to pay the KFC and take meals during that term at the undergraduate price. Scholars who pay the KFC receive 16 free dinners per Term.

Kitchen Fixed Charge opt-out – such students who are granted an exceptional dispensation may take the occasional special meal in Hall, but will be charged at a higher (graduate) level.
47. PRICE OF MEALS

Food items are charged individually; however, the approximate costs for meals in Hall are currently as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Undergraduates</th>
<th>Graduates</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Breakfast</td>
<td>£4.20</td>
<td>£4.55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two-course Lunch</td>
<td>£4.75</td>
<td>£6.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Three-course Dinner</td>
<td>£5.40</td>
<td>£7.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Formal Hall/BA Dinner</td>
<td>H: £12.50 G: £17.00</td>
<td>H: £11.20 G: £17.50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You pay for meals with your University Card. H = Host and G = Guest

48. SPECIAL TABLE FOR GUESTS IN HALL

Except on Friday and Sunday, you may, during Full Term, reserve a table to be set aside for you and up to five guests to be served with the High Table Dinner (i.e. the Fellows’ dinner). Details of charges without wine are available from the Catering Office, M2a New Court, but no charge is made for Fellows of the College. The meal and any wine to accompany it should be ordered from the Catering Office seven days prior to the date of the proposed Guest Table.

49. FORMAL HALL AND BA DINNERS

Formal Hall, which is a rather more elaborate dinner, is served on Thursdays and Saturdays in Full Term. Tickets are purchased via students’ UpayChilli accounts. Places in Hall may not be reserved. Groups of ten or more dining together by prior arrangement are regarded as parties and must have the permission from the Head of Catering, even when the individuals buy their tickets separately. Boisterous and noisy behaviour is an inconvenience to other diners in Hall or to catering staff and will not be tolerated. Photography is not permitted nor is the use of mobile phones. Students are responsible for the behaviour of their guests and should ensure that the correct dress code is adhered to. Academical dress is worn at Formal Hall and BA Dinners.
(a) Guest Privileges at Formal Hall and BA Dinners
When there is capacity, students may introduce up to two guests at a time on the understanding that:

(a) The actions of their guests are the responsibility of the student hosting those guests. This applies for the entire time that their guests remain on the College premises, and so hosts should accompany their guests at all times.

(b) Guests are expected to show consideration for other diners and members of the College, and treat members of staff with respect and dignity at all times.

(c) Students must re-familiarise themselves with the College’s Guidance on Sensible Drinking on MyTrin and ensure that their guests also drink sensibly.

(d) Students must enter the correct names of their guests online and ensure that, when asked by members of the College staff, their guests will swiftly identify themselves and their host. Failure to do so will result in ejection of guests from College premises.

(e) No guest under the age of eighteen may be introduced, unless by prior permission from the Head of Catering. Under no circumstances will those under the age of sixteen be allowed to dine.

(f) Games such as dropping a penny in another student’s wine glass to force that person to drink up the wine, or placing a five-pence piece in another student’s food to force that person to eat the food without utensils will not be tolerated. Students found to be participating in, or condoning or urging others to take part in such games will be ejected from Hall immediately, and their guest privileges will be suspended for one term.

(g) The University Card may be used only by the authorised cardholder.

(h) Failure to comply with these conditions, and any irresponsible behaviour or misconduct, including disrespectful attitude towards members of staff, will be referred to the Dean of College.

There are some special Dinners where guests may not be introduced.

In exceptional circumstances, and if there is capacity in Hall, students may request one additional guest ticket (in addition to the two which they are usually permitted) from the Head of Catering (catering@trin.cam.ac.uk) ten days before the date via e-mail. The header should include the intended date of dining, and the following information must be provided:

• The date they wish to dine
• Justification for an extra guest ticket
• The full names of all their guests (and College, if a member of the University)
• That they assume responsibility for the entire group
• That they have read the College’s Guidance on Sensible Drinking
(b) Seating at Formal Hall and BA Dinners
The Hall is for communal dining. At Formal Hall and BA Dinners, students and their guests are therefore expected to occupy the next available seat without gaps (High Table convention). Places in Formal Hall or BA Dinners may not be reserved. Permission must be sought from the Head of Catering in cases where more than ten people make a prior arrangement to dine together. Students are reminded that, if they wish to dine as a group, it would be more appropriate to make separate arrangements elsewhere in the College.

(c) Swaps
On the understanding that the event is part of the custom of College societies entertaining each other in different Colleges, a College society recognized by the Amalgamated Clubs Committee may introduce, once a term, guests from a counterpart society of another College, provided that:
(a) The total number in the group, including Trinity students, is no more than 30.
(b) Each guest is assigned a specific host who is a member of the College society.
(c) Each College society member may host up to two such guests.
(d) Each College society member who will be hosting such guests has read and understood the College’s Guidance on Sensible Drinking.
(e) The organiser of such an event prepares a list of names of Trinity students who will act as hosts and of the names of the guests assigned to them, to be distributed to the society members and also to the Head of Catering ten days before the dinner.
(f) The Catering Department will normally create a separate account for the College society for such an occasion and it is the responsibility of the College society to collect payment from their guests and settle the bill.

The College society planning a ‘swap’ must apply to the Head of Catering (catering@trin.cam.ac.uk) at the earliest opportunity, and certainly no later than two weeks before the planned date. The Head of Catering will confirm if there is capacity in Hall for the requested date. The group will be asked to sit together at a separate table so that they will be readily identifiable. Rowdy or inconsiderate behaviour towards other students or staff will not be tolerated. The host College society is responsible for the actions of their guests for the entire time they are on the College premises. Should a society be found to have encouraged or condoned irresponsible drinking or undignified form of conduct, it will lose its right to organise such an event in Hall for one term. Any case of misconduct will be referred to the Dean of College.
(d) University Societies
University societies are not permitted to dine in Hall, except with extraordinary permission from the College Council. They are welcome to make arrangements for private dining elsewhere in the College by contacting catering@trin.cam.ac.uk.

IT Matters

50. COLLEGE NETWORK CONNECTIONS

Trinity College has its own IT network known as the Trinity College Data Network (TCDN). You can use the TCDN while you are a member of College. This College system interconnects with the Cambridge University Data Network (UDN) system, so policies from both networks will apply to you while you are using the TCDN. Both Trinity and the University of Cambridge are members of the Janet network, and so you will also be bound to Janet policies while using this facility. Information about Computing and Networking policies can be found under section 52.

Wired connections to the network
All student rooms in College have access to a computer network point (an ethernet socket) that can be used to connect to the internet via an ethernet cable. This connection will be more reliable and provide a better connection speed than a wireless connection. More information on how to connect to the TCDN via ethernet cable can be found online: https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/initial-setup-guide

Wireless connections to the network
In addition to the wired network, wireless (Wi-Fi) coverage is widely available across most College student rooms and is generally available in most areas of the College. Information on how to connect to the College Wi-Fi can be found online: https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/college-network/wireless

51. STUDENT COMPUTER ROOMS AND IT SUPPORT

Communal Computer Rooms
Trinity College has communal computer rooms which are available to use for registered Trinity junior members. Other persons are not permitted to enter the rooms or to use the equipment in them and must not be invited to do so. Entry to these computer rooms is by your University Card.

These communal computing rooms are equipped with a variety of hardware and software. The details about the type of equipment available in each room, including operating systems and software installed, is made available online: https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/students

Student computer rooms are maintained by the College IT Department and any issues should be emailed to student.help@trin.cam.ac.uk, including low paper or broken equipment reports.

Printing, Scanning and copying

Students can print, copy and scan using the communal computer room printers. Students can also print to these printers from personal devices which are connected to the network. Information about using the communal computer rooms for printing documents can also be found online: https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/students

College IT support

Support requests should be sent to student.help@trin.cam.ac.uk. You can also call the IT Office on 01223 338551. A student support drop-in service is available during term time Monday to Friday between 14:00 and 15:00 in the D1 Bishop’s Hostel IT Office.

Student-owned Computer support

Students are strongly encouraged to arrange for their own support but in case of severe difficulty, the IT Department may be consulted. If the issue requires ‘hands-on’ support this may be available subject to the availability of computing staff.

Computer room issues and general network problems will always be given first priority and individual student problems will be handled on a ‘first-come, first-served’ basis. The owner must sign a disclaimer releasing the College from liability for any accidental loss or damage to hardware, software or data once it is left with the IT Department.

Students must ensure that they take all personal computer equipment home with them when they go out of residence or arrange a responsible means of disposal. The College IT Department will not deal with unwanted computer equipment owned by students.
52. POLICIES GOVERNING USE OF COMPUTERS AND NETWORKING

There are strict rules governing the use of computers and the need to respect intellectual property held on computers. Anyone using a computer connected to the College data network must comply with the College, University and Janet policies, which are available online: https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/college-network

The College reserves the right to disable network points while problems are being investigated or if there is improper use of the network.

Bursary & Finance

53. COLLEGE ACCOUNTS

(a) College and University Fees
Any fees paid by the Student Loans Company, or some other public body, will be sent direct to the College. Home/EU students who have applied for Student Support (i.e. Tuition Fee Loan or Student Loan for maintenance) must provide a copy of their Financial Notification to Members Accounts (Y Angel Court). For any students who have not applied for student support other evidence of their eligibility for public funding will be required. Unless such evidence is provided, the student will be liable personally for the College Fee. Please note that you need to re-apply for your tuition fee loan each year and that you should inform Members Accounts if you have previously had your fees paid by tuition fee loan and decide that for the coming academic year you will be paying the fees yourself or vice versa. If you are responsible for paying your own fees, you will be sent an invoice for them at the beginning of each term. No fees are charged during the Long Vacation period of residence.

(b) Charges for rooms, heating, meals in Hall and for all other services provided by the College
Some of these items, primarily the room charge and the Kitchen Fixed Charge (see section 46) are charged quarterly in advance, and the remaining items, such as meals, quarterly in arrears. A College bill detailing all these charges is issued at the start of each term and will be sent to your pigeonhole by Redit Day. If you have not received your bill by then or you have a query regarding the bill, please contact Members Accounts without delay. This bill also covers any items outstanding from the previous quarter, including any adjustments where the actual charge differs from that collected in advance.

College accounts are due for payment not later than the end of the fourth week of Full Term during Michaelmas and Lent Terms and no later than the third week of Full Term during Easter Term. Tutors are informed of those who have not paid at the end of the fifth week of Michaelmas and Lent Terms and the fourth week of Easter Term. Students experiencing financial difficulties are urged to see their Tutors as soon as possible.

Students whose accounts have not been cleared and whose Tutors have not heard from them, are sent reminders by the Bursary as follows:

Michaelmas and Lent Terms
(a) The end of the sixth week of Full Term
(b) The end of the seventh week
(c) The end of the eighth week

Easter Term
(a) The end of the fifth week
(b) The end of the sixth week
(c) The end of the seventh week

The sending of each of these reminders attracts a charge of £10 for the first letter, £20 for the second letter and £30 for the third letter (totalling £60), to be added to the account; reminders are only sent to those students who have failed to see their Tutor, or the Junior Bursar, to explain why they have failed to pay their accounts.

Students still in debt at Exit Day will be required to go out of residence immediately, and the College Council may not permit them to occupy their College rooms in the following term. Tutors may support a request to the Junior Bursar to vary these sanctions, so if you have financial problems you should contact your Tutor without delay.
Graduating students in their final term will be required to pay catering charges in advance as part of the College bill they receive at the beginning of the Easter Term. This will be an estimated figure equivalent to the catering charges accrued during the previous Lent Term. The College bill should be cleared in full by the last day of Full Term if they are to graduate. Please note that ‘cleared’ means that the funds have been credited to the College’s account; it normally takes five working days for a cheque to be cleared; bank transfers can also take a similar amount of time. The requirement to clear College accounts in full in order to graduate will be varied only in the most exceptional circumstances.

It is the responsibility of the individual student to keep their Tutor or Tutorial Administrator informed of any change to their personal circumstances or details. This is important in determining fees, bursaries and, for example, the rents charged for graduate students occupying College flats. Students should also keep their address details on CamSIS up-to-date.

(c) Payment of College Accounts
Payment of both College and University Fees, and the College bill can be made by cheque (made payable to Members Accounts, Trinity College) or directly into the College’s bank account by bank transfer. The details required to make a payment by bank transfer are as follows:
• Barclays Bank, Sidney Street, Cambridge.
• Sort Code: 20-17-68
• Account No. 00051942

If payment is being made from an overseas bank account you will need the following:
• IBAN No. IBAN GB48 BARC 2017 6800 0519 42
• Swiftcode/Swiftbic: BARCGB22

In order for us to be able to identify who the payment is from it is essential that you ask the bank to put your name as a reference. Please note that bank charges may be incurred.

The College is unable to accept payment in cash or by credit/debit cards in settlement of College accounts.
54. STUDENT LOANS

Student loans for maintenance and Tuition Fee loans are available from public funds to a UK student who fulfil the necessary requirements taking an undergraduate course or the Postgraduate Certificate in Education. EU students qualify only for a Tuition Fee loan. You should obtain information on how to apply for these loans from the relevant Student Finance website (Student Finance England, Student Finance Wales, Student Finance NI, Student Awards Agency for Scotland). You should consult your Tutor if you are in doubt about your eligibility or are uncertain about your application.

If you are granted a student loan for maintenance, payments will be made directly into your bank account as soon as your attendance has been confirmed to the Student Loans Company (SLC) by the Tutorial Office.

Tuition fee loans are paid directly by the SLC to the College. It is your responsibility to ensure that the SLC has up-to-date details of your bank account.

55. KITCHEN CREDIT AND UPAYCHILLI

Kitchen credit is currently £575 per term. If you should exceed your credit limit, the Catering Department offers you the opportunity to pay off part of the amount owed, thus restoring credit.

The Catering Department runs an online student service of UpayChilli. Students will be sent a single-use link at the beginning of the academic year in order to register their account. This link has a 48-hour activation period; if it is not activated within these 48 hours, students will need to contact upay@trin.cam.ac.uk in order to have a new link sent out. Once the account is set up, it can be accessed both via the website and the app.

Any purchases made through the Catering Department will appear on the online statements provided by UpayChilli, which can be accessed via the app and/or website. Purchases are automatically deducted from a student’s catering credit limit, and students are able to see their available credit through this service at any time.
Formal Hall and BA Dinner tickets are offered through the online service, UpayChilli.

Tickets for Formal Hall and BA Dinners are available to purchase up to ten days in advance (from 08:00), with the booking window closing three days in advance (at 20:00). Any amendment or cancellation of tickets can be made during this booking window; however, after this period, all ticket sales are final and non-refundable.

Dietary requirements must be declared at the point of booking; please ensure that any life-threatening allergies are brought to the attention of the Catering Department at upay@trin.cam.ac.uk.

56. COUNCIL TAX

Students following a recognised University course are exempt from Council Tax and properties intended solely for occupation by students (College or College hostel) are exempt. Any student who lives in accommodation out of College, and which includes occupants other than students, may need a letter to confirm their student status. This can be provided by the Tutorial Office. Please note, if you live within Cambridge City, your details are automatically supplied to Cambridge City Council for Council Tax exemption purposes, and no additional letter from the College is required.

Students from a one-parent family can obtain a student status letter from the Tutorial Office, which may entitle the parent to claim a 25% reduction of Council Tax.

Other Facilities

57. THE GYM

The College Gym is located at Old Field.

All those wishing to use the gym are required to have a formal induction. Information is available via the Gym web pages on the College website. This website will list Induction sessions and classes on a weekly basis and will give instructions on how to book. Classes will also be advertised on the noticeboard outside the gym and in the Porters’ Lodge at Burrell’s Field. Following completion of the induction course, the student’s University Card will be enabled with gym access and a charge of £30 per academic year will be made via the student’s College account for use of the gym.

The badminton and squash courts at Old Field must be booked via the Porters’ Lodge in Burrell’s Field (or online via: www.trin.cam.ac.uk/fieldclub) and access to these facilities is with the University Card.

58. THE CHAPEL

All members of the College are welcome at Chapel services. The Chapel may be used at other times as a place for quiet reflection. On Sunday mornings there is a celebration of Communion (followed by breakfast), and in the evening Evensong with a visiting preacher. The College Choir, which broadcasts and records regularly, sings at Evensong on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. In addition to these services, Morning Prayer is said daily and Evening Prayer is said on Mondays and Wednesdays. A service of Compline is sung by candlelight on Wednesday evenings. Details of these and other events will be found on the termly Chapel card and on the website.

The Dean of Chapel and the Chaplains can be contacted directly or via the Chapel Secretary. The Chaplains, with the Tutors, have particular responsibility for pastoral care of undergraduate and graduate students. Although they are accustomed to treating conversations as strictly confidential, they are also able, when appropriate and with the student’s permission, to liaise with Tutors and others with responsibility for pastoral care. The Chaplains make an effort to meet new members of the College during the first weeks of Term, and undergraduates and graduates are welcome to call on them during their office hours or at other times by appointment.

59. THE LIBRARY

The College Library includes The Reading Room, Lower Library and Law Reading Room, which contain books likely to be of use to members of the College reading for degrees, and the Wren Library which contains a fine collection of manuscripts and early printed books.
Opening hours are as follows:

Full Term (Michaelmas, Lent and Easter)

| Wren Library   | Monday 09:00 to Friday 17:00
|               | Saturday 09:00 to 13:00       |
| Reading Room and Lower Library | 08:00 to 01:00 seven days a week |

Term (outside Full Term) and Vacation

| Wren Library   | Monday 09:00 to Friday 17:00
| Reading Room and Lower Library | Monday 09:00 to Friday 20:00
|               | Saturday 09:00 to 17:00       |

The Library will be closed 24–29 December 2019, open 30 and 31 December 2019 and closed on 1 January 2020. It will also be closed on Good Friday and the three following days, and on August Bank Holiday Monday.

Any changes to the times and dates listed above will be advertised in the Library and on the Library web pages.

The College Library is for use only by members of the College. Access to the College Library is by swipe card after 18:00, Monday to Friday, after 13:00 on Saturday, and all day Sunday.

Computer catalogues for items in the Library are located near the issue desk. The computer catalogue is also accessible via the Trinity website homepage.

Items may be borrowed from the Reading Room and the Lower Library: loan rules are published in the Library Guide, and are also available via the library web pages. Fines are levied for overdue items. Items borrowed over the vacation are due back on the first day of the following Full Term. The University Card is required when borrowing items. Two self-checkout kiosks can be found in the Catalogue Room. A small computer room is available for student use on the first floor of the Library; use of all computers in the Library is governed by the same regulations with respect to the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 and to intellectual property mentioned in Section 28.
Further information about the Library is published annually in the Library Guide, copies of which are distributed to all new members of the College. The Library Guide is also available on the library web pages. Readers will be required to pay for loss of, or damage to, items for which they are responsible. Smoking, including e-cigarettes, is not allowed. Only bottled water or water from the dispenser in the Catalogue Room may be drunk. Eating is not allowed in the Library.

The Law Reading Room is situated in F staircase, Bishop’s Hostel. Books may not be borrowed from it, but it is open 24 hours a day to those reading Law by means of the University Card.

Students who wish to use a University Library in or near their home town during vacations may be able to do so, on presentation of their University Library Card.

60. COURTS & WALKS

The Fellows’ Garden and Burrell’s Field
The Fellows’ Garden on the west of Queen’s Road is open to all members of the College. After dusk the recommended route to and from Burrell’s Field is via Burrell’s Walk. The gates are operated by an appropriately-programmed University Card. You should be careful crossing the busy Queen’s Road and are advised to use the safety island set in the middle of the road as an aid to crossing.

Walking on the Grass
Students are not allowed to walk on the grass in the Courts, on the lawns of the Backs on the east side of the river, or on the North Paddock.

Barbecues
Private barbecues are prohibited anywhere in College at any time.

Roof Climbing
Climbing on the stonework and roofs and walking along the leads has contributed substantially to the deterioration of the fabric, which costs large sums to maintain and repair. The practice is most strictly forbidden, and severe penalties will be imposed on offenders.
Filming
Any filming within the precincts of the College (including Courts, public and private rooms) requires the permission of the College in advance. Students who wish to seek such permission should consult the Junior Bursar.

The Backs
Tennis, croquet, frisbee and soft ball games are permitted on the South Paddock only. Boots with studs should not be worn. Picnics and parties are not allowed anywhere on the Backs, unless events are organised by College Clubs and Societies.

Drone Policy
In light of the guidelines shown on the Civil Aviation Authority website, the College Council agreed that the private flying of drones over College property is prohibited.

61. TRANSPORT

Motor Vehicles
Motor vehicles (including motorcycles, motorised bicycles and scooters) must not be parked on College premises, either on the main site or on Burrell’s Field. If you wish to bring a vehicle into College for more than a brief period for loading or unloading at the beginning or end of Term you must display a temporary parking permit in the window of the vehicle, having first obtained the permit from the Porters’ Lodge. You must move your vehicle at once if requested to do so by a Porter. There are strict University regulations regarding motor vehicles (see www.proctors.cam.ac.uk/motor-control). Permission to park vehicles in College overnight will only be given (by the Junior Bursar) in the most exceptional circumstances.

Punts
You must not moor a punt or any other type of boat on the Backs. If you own a punt it must be registered and marked (check this with the Junior Bursar). College punts are available to hire at a reduced rate on production of your College card every day during the summer months from 10:00 to 18:45.

Rollerblades and Skateboards
Neither rollerblades, skateboards, nor any other form of wheeled transport (other than that required for disabled persons) may be used within the confines of the College, including Burrell’s Field.
Bicycles

University regulations require that bicycles belonging to students bear a College registration number. Trinity students may bring ONE bicycle only to College, which must be registered at the Accommodation Office (Z Angel Court) at the start of each academic year. The sticker must be affixed to the frame of the bicycle in a prominent position.

Students are strongly encouraged not to bring valuable bicycles into College; anyone wishing to have an expensive specialist bicycle in College does so at their own risk. Bicycles must not be left in any Court, staircase entrance or communal area, nor may they be kept in students’ rooms.

A limited number of spaces in the basement bicycle stores located at Great Gate, ‘K’ Whewell’s Court and Blue Boar Court (near Gifford Place) are available for students. Students eligible to apply for a space will be contacted by the Accommodation Office before the start of each Michaelmas Term; stalls are then assigned via a random ballot at the beginning of each academic year. Students allocated a space will be issued with a sticker showing the stall number, which must also be affixed to the frame of the bicycle in a prominent position. At the end of the academic year students should either remove their bicycle or obtain permission from the Accommodation Office to leave it in College over the Long Vacation. Students who are not returning to College the following year must remove their bicycle from College premises when they leave at the end of the Easter Term.

Access to the basement store(s) is only given to those with a designated space; under no circumstances should the bicycle store gates be wedged open. Students are strongly advised to ensure that they secure the frame of their bicycle, as well as the wheel, to the stall. The College accepts no responsibility for loss or damage of any bicycles on College premises, including those held in the basement bicycle stores.

Bicycles not displaying a current registration sticker, or found in the incorrect stall in a basement store, will have a note attached advising the owner that the bicycle will be removed by the Works Department. If the owner does not register or move the bicycle, it will be removed and placed in storage for six months prior to disposal. Students who wish to retrieve their bicycle will be required to pay £15 for the recovery of the bicycle. The College does not accept any liability should it be necessary to cut locks or chains to remove an unregistered bicycle.
Bicycles must not be ridden in College, including within Burrell’s Field or along the Avenue, and they may not be taken into the Fellows’ Garden. They must not be wheeled across Great Court unless the Bishop’s Hostel gate is closed, when they may be wheeled along the east and south sides.

Students should ensure that their bicycles are adequately insured – note that your home insurance policy will not normally cover a bicycle kept in Cambridge.

The College has a small number of cycle lockers at Old Field which have been reserved for students who are members of University/College Sports teams and so need to bring a competition bicycle to Cambridge. If you wish to apply for one of these lockers, please ask the Accommodation Office for an application form.

Safe Cycling

Cycling is often the fastest way of getting round the City, but students should be aware that the Highway Code laws apply to cyclists as well as other road users. Cyclists must therefore obey traffic signals and signs. Remember it is against the law for cyclists to:

- jump red lights, including lights at pedestrian crossings
- cycle on pavements, unless there is a sign showing that cyclists are allowed to do this
- cycle the wrong way up a one way street, unless there is a sign showing that cyclists are permitted to do so
- ride across pedestrian crossings, unless it is a toucan crossing with a sign saying that cyclists can do so.

Distractions: Cyclists need to concentrate as much as any other road user, if not more, as they are more vulnerable. Using mobile phones and wearing headphones whilst cycling is extremely dangerous.

Visibility: Wear bright and visible clothes when cycling. If bright clothes are not suitable for everyday use, fluorescent and reflective tabards can be worn until the destination is reached. White front lights and red rear lights must be used after dark and will also help you be seen in the rain or if the weather is overcast.

Protection: Always wear a cycle helmet as this can reduce the risk of head injury in a crash.
Road position and signalling: Steer clear of the kerb and don’t ride in the gutter. Give space on the left, and don’t hug the kerb if a car behind you gets impatient. Don’t weave between lanes or change direction suddenly. Show drivers what you plan to do in plenty of time. Always look and signal before you start, stop or turn. Make eye contact with drivers and let them know you’ve seen them.

Maintenance: It is important that your bicycle is regularly maintained and checked: brakes need to work well in all conditions; lights and reflectors must be clean and in good working order; tyres need to be in good condition and inflated to the pressure shown on the tyre; gears should work correctly and the chain properly adjusted and oiled. The saddle and handlebars should also be adjusted to the correct height. For further information see the following website: http://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/life/accommodation/cycle-safety.

Appendix A: Code of Practice for Freedom of Speech

Code of Practice issued in light of Section 43 of the Education (No. 2) Act 1986, the Equality Act 2010 and the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015.

1. INTRODUCTION

It is a paradoxical consequence of the above legislation, the object of which is to safeguard freedom of speech, that it forces the College to institute a process of regulation which must inevitably limit in some degree the freedom and discretion of organisers of meetings, but we hope that the Code of Practice has been framed in such a way as to minimise this effect.

1.1 Section 43 of the Education (No. 2) Act 1986 places a duty on the College to take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for its members, students and employees, and for visiting speakers.

1.2 The Section also requires the College to issue and keep up to date a Code of Practice to be followed by the Master, Fellows, students, other members, Fellow Commoners, and employees of the College about the organisation of meetings that are to be held on College premises, and about the conduct required for those persons in connection with meetings. This Code of Practice therefore applies to all students, other members, and employees of the College in respect of meetings on any of the College’s premises, outdoor as well as indoor.

1.3 In this Code of Practice a ‘meeting’ includes any function, dinner, party, or other entertainment or activity. However, the provisions of the Code shall not normally apply to the following categories of meeting: College lectures, supervisions, and seminars; College functions; entertainments given by Senior Members of the University at which no person is invited to make a speech; gatherings of College societies at which no person is invited to make a speech; services in College chapel; wedding receptions; organised musical and dramatic activities; organised sports. However, the organisers of such meetings are reminded:
(a) that the Dean of College should be informed if they fear that freedom of speech may be endangered;
(b) that although this Code of Practice does not apply to such meetings, the ordinary College regulations as to discipline do apply.

1.4 The attention of members of the College is drawn to the following College regulations for discipline:
(a) Disruption of meetings, etc. No member of the College shall disrupt, impede, or attempt to disrupt or impede, meetings, functions, or other lawful activities held or being carried on within the College or elsewhere within the Precincts of the University (the ‘Precincts of the University’ include all places within three miles of Great St. Mary’s Church and certain other places).
(b) Freedom of Speech. No member of the College shall impede or otherwise interfere with freedom of speech or lawful assembly within the College or elsewhere within the Precincts of the University.

These regulations apply to all meetings held on College premises, including meetings organised by conferences and other outside bodies. Members of the College are reminded that actions that disrupt meetings or impede freedom of speech or lawful assembly will also constitute offences under the University’s regulations for discipline: see (4) below.

1.5 In order for the College to be able to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure freedom of speech as required under Section 43 of the Act and the Equality Act 2010 and to fulfil its obligations under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015, notice of proposed meetings, functions, or other activities must be given in accordance with the following paragraphs.

2. ORGANISATION OF MEETINGS ON COLLEGE PREMISES

2.1 Students who wish to arrange any meeting (including dinners, parties, and other entertainments) to which any speaker is invited should discuss the event with their Tutor at the earliest opportunity. The identity of the speaker(s) should be disclosed, along with the nature and subject of the proposed talk.
You will be asked to complete an online Speaker Form (on MyTrin) in full by providing details of the person taking responsibility for the meeting, the date and time of the meeting, the place, the names, addresses and Colleges (if any) of the organisers, the name of the organisation making the arrangements, the name of any expected speakers, and whether or not they are members of the University. The organiser of the event must be a committee member of the society, and must have attended the Dean’s induction session (the names of organisers thus registered are available on the Dean’s webpage).

Party forms are available from the Tutorial Office and a room-booking form will be sent to you by the Accommodation or Catering Department once a provisional booking has been made. Party and room-booking forms require your Tutor’s signature, so you should plan to see you Tutor during office hours. Additional signatures may be required if you wish to film, serve alcohol, or play music at the event (section 42), so you should plan your event well ahead of time.

2.2 The online Speaker Form must be submitted at least seven days (but preferably much earlier) before the proposed event. The Dean of College is empowered to impose conditions or to refuse permission for the meeting to be held. The Dean will issue an online authorisation which may include additional conditions or modifications to the event. Students are urged to submit their forms well ahead of the scheduled event in order to accommodate any modifications requested by the Dean. On authorisation from the Dean, the Speaker Form should be printed out and signed by the organiser, screened by the Head Porter, and then returned to the relevant booking office (i.e. the Accommodation Office or Catering Department) seven days before the event. Once the Forms are received by the booking office, the provisional booking will be confirmed. Events may not be advertised until the booking is confirmed.

2.3 The organisers of a meeting to which (2.1) applies must comply with any conditions set by the appropriate College authority in respect of the organisation of the meeting or other activity and the arrangements to be made. Such conditions may include the requirement that tickets must be issued, that an adequate number of stewards shall be available, that the services of the Porters shall be hired, that the police shall be consulted, and that the time and place of the meeting shall be changed. In extreme cases the College reserves the right to cancel or terminate a meeting. Students may appeal the Dean’s decision through their Tutor (see College’s Policy regarding Events involving External Speakers and External Audiences, 4.7, on MyTrin).
2.4 Senior Members who have invited a speaker to an event in College may wish to approach the Dean of College for guidance about their responsibilities in line with this Code of Practice. Further information is available in the College’s Policy regarding Events involving External Speakers and External Audiences.

3. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS ON COLLEGE PREMISES

3.1 The organisers of any meetings on College premises, and persons attending such meetings, must comply with instructions given by any person authorised to act on behalf of the College (including the Proctors) in the proper discharge of their duties. The attention of members of the College is drawn to the following College regulations for discipline:
   (a) Obedience to College authorities. All members of the College shall comply with instructions given in the discharge of their duties by persons (including Porters) who are authorised to act on behalf of the College.
   (b) Obligation to identify oneself to College and other authorities. All members of the College shall state their names when asked to do so by persons (including Porters) who are authorised to act on behalf of the College, by a Proctor, Pro-Proctor, or other person in authority in the University, or while on or near the premises of another College, by any person in authority in that College.

3.2 Any person attending a meeting may be required at any time to leave the place at which the meeting is held and, if not a resident member of the College, to leave the premises of the College notwithstanding any payment he may have made to attend the meeting.

4. THE UNIVERSITY

The provisions of Section 43 of the Education (no. 2) Act 1986, the Equality Act 2010 and the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 apply also to the University in respect of all its members, students, and employees and to visiting speakers. The College may invite the Proctors to enter its premises and authorise them to act in the discharge of their University duties. Members of the College are reminded that University disciplinary regulations apply on College premises as elsewhere in the Precincts of the University, and their attention is particularly drawn to the following University regulations for discipline (University Ordinances, 2018, p.193–194).
1. No member of the University shall intentionally or recklessly disrupt or impede or attempt to disrupt or impede the activities and functions of the University, or any part thereof, or of any College.

2. No member of the University shall intentionally or recklessly impede freedom of speech or lawful assembly within the Precincts of the University. No member of the University shall intentionally or recklessly fail to give any notice which is required to be given to a University officer or a University authority under the terms of a code of practice issued under the provisions of section 43 of the Education (No. 2) Act 1986.

9. All members of the University shall comply with any instruction given by a University officer, or by any other person authorised to act on behalf of the University, in the proper discharge of his or her duties.

10. All members of the University shall state their names and the Colleges to which they belong when asked by a Proctor or Pro-Proctor, or by any other person in authority in the University or in any of the Colleges in the University.

5. OTHER LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

The attention of the organisers of public meetings and assemblies is drawn to Sections 11 and 14 of the Public Order Act 1986, concerning processions and assemblies, and to other legal requirements which may affect the conduct of meetings. For example, a speaker who incites an assembly of persons to violence or to breach of the peace or to racial hatred commits a criminal offence. Moreover, assemblies of persons, even if directed to lawful purposes, cease to be lawful if they threaten serious public disorder or breaches of the peace.

6. APPLICATION OF THE CODE

6.1 Section 1.3 explains which types of meetings are covered by the provisions of this Code, and which are not. Any person who is in any doubt about the application of this Code of Practice to any meetings or public gatherings in the College is under an obligation to consult the Dean of College (or his deputy) who will determine whether the provisions of the Code apply.

6.2 Breach by any members of the College of any of the requirements of this Code will be treated as a disciplinary offence.
Appendix B: Guidance on Sensible Drinking

Alcohol is a drug, albeit a legal one; indeed, it is the UK’s favourite drug. Excessive drinking and its consequences are a nationwide concern. The College urges everyone who chooses to drink alcohol to do so responsibly and not to abuse it. Some students choose not to drink alcohol at all; many others drink safely without any problems or impact on their studies – but not all. For many students, University events may be the first time that they encounter alcohol in significant amounts, and it is important that you understand the risks associated with drinking and your responsibilities when organising events which serve alcohol. The first part of this document explains the dangers of alcohol abuse and guidelines for sensible drinking. The second part of this document sets out this College’s expectation of its students regarding alcohol consumption. The purpose of this document is to encourage a culture of self-regulation which involves respect and care for oneself and for others. If your drinking habits are affecting your life and work, you should not hesitate to contact your Tutor, who will be able to advise you in a sympathetic and informed manner.

1. HEALTH & SAFETY

1.1 Official guidelines recommend no more than three to four units a day for adult men and two to three units a day for adult women. As a general rule one unit is half a pint of beer, lager or cider, one small glass (125ml) of wine, or a 25 ml measure of spirit. So safe drinking means about 14 units for women and 21 units for men per week – that is, spread over the week. Binge-drinking is commonly defined as consuming more than 6 units of alcohol in a single session for men and women. However, these are only approximate guidelines: for instance, a small (125ml) glass of Jacob’s Creek red wine (as a popular example) contains 1.6 units of alcohol. Some useful information on the amount of alcohol in commercial drinks can be found on the Drinkaware website (www.drinkaware.co.uk) and wider advice from the Portman Group website (www.portmangroup.org.uk).

1.2 It takes your body about an hour to process one unit of alcohol, so you need to pace your drinking so that your body can cope. Individuals can differ in their metabolism and tolerance to alcohol depending on how tired they are, whether they have eaten, paced themselves with plenty of water, what the weather is like, and so on. The fact that you have managed to tolerate a certain amount of alcohol in the past does not guarantee that you are able to do so on the next occasion because those conditions that affect you might have changed. So you need to learn how much you personally can safely drink while still remaining in control of yourself.

1.3 The effects of alcohol can start within ten minutes and depending on the individual can last for many hours. Slurred speech, vomiting, loss of balance and distorted vision are just some of the more immediate effects of drinking on the body, if you consume too much at once; so is unconsciousness. Drinking large amounts too rapidly can lead to alcohol poisoning, which can be fatal, as can the combination of unconsciousness and vomiting. Long-term use is linked to liver damage, heart disease, brain damage, some cancers and several disorders of the reproductive system and sexual organs. Remember that it is possible to remain under the influence of alcohol the morning after a heavy drinking bout. Spend 48 hours without alcohol to allow your system to recover.

1.4 You should not drink alcohol if:
- You might be in the early stages of pregnancy
- You will be operating machinery, or equipment in a practical class
- You may be driving a car. CUSU has a policy that no-one should drive on official CUSU business within 48 hours of drinking.

1.5 Alcohol is an addictive drug and there is strong evidence that abuse of alcohol and alcohol dependency may stem from drinking in order to relieve stress, anxiety, and depressive thoughts – all of which are not uncommon among a student population, and for all of which help is available through the College and your GP. Alcohol is a depressant and can exacerbate pre-existing depressive conditions as well as precipitate them.

1.6 Being on the streets under the influence of drink puts you at greater risk of physical or sexual assault. So for safety, stay with friends, look out for your friends, do not walk back to your College alone at night, and take extra care on night-time roads. You should also be alert to the risk of drink spiking.

1.7 Excessive consumption can lead to anti-social conduct, aggression, intimidation or violence. Although alcohol is a depressant it can exaggerate whatever mood you are in when you start drinking. When drunk, you may unwittingly seem more threatening to others, influencing how they react to you. Avoiding violence when not fully in control of yourself can be difficult; your perceptions will be dulled, it will take you longer to react and think things through, and your judgement may be reduced. Aim to talk your way out of a situation, avoiding aggressive language, and using open body language. But always bear in mind that when you have been drinking, you will be more vulnerable to difficulties and danger than when sober.
1.8 If you suspect alcohol poisoning, you should seek medical assistance as soon as possible. If you are in College, you should ask the Porters (01223 338544) to call the emergency services so that they can direct them swiftly to where you are. While you are waiting, the NHS advice is the following:

- try to keep them sitting up and awake
- give them water if they can drink it
- if they’ve passed out, lie them on their side in the recovery position and check that they are breathing properly
- keep them warm
- stay with them and monitor their symptoms

Never leave a person alone to ‘sleep it off’. The level of alcohol in a person’s blood can continue to rise for up to 30-40 minutes after their last drink. This can cause their symptoms to suddenly become much more severe.

You also should not give them coffee or any more alcohol, put them under a cold shower or walk them around. These will not help someone ‘sober up’ and may even be dangerous.

1.9 If you have concerns about your or any of your friends’ drinking habits, further advice and support are available from:

- UCS (01223 332865, https://www.counselling.cam.ac.uk/)
- Cambridgeshire Drug And Alcohol Team (01223 699680)

2. EXPECTATIONS OF THE COLLEGE

2.1 Organisers of student events should always ensure that there is plenty of good quality, alcohol-free drinks. They should ensure that excessive quantities of alcohol are not available, and that only sensible drinking takes place. A strong social emphasis on alcohol can be insensitive to those who choose not to drink it. No one should encourage others to drink more than they ought or wish. Competitive drinking games such as penning are strictly forbidden. Those who condone, encourage, or force others to drink to excess, especially if there is any element of intimidation or bullying, will come under the serious scrutiny of the Dean. If members of a College society are found to have participated in or organised drinking games, Decanal sanctions will be placed on the society as a whole.
2.2 Any College event, including dinner in Hall, should be enjoyable and civilized for all present, and this can only happen if individuals take responsibility for their own behaviour. Those dining or drinking in the Bar must exercise restraint and not drink to excess; hosts should look after their guests and friends look after one another; and everybody should show consideration towards staff. If a diner is behaving inappropriately a member of the Catering staff may intervene, and students are expected to comply promptly with instructions from the Catering staff. College staff have a responsibility to ensure that College members and their guests do not drink to excess; those who do will be refused further service and may be asked to leave the Bar or Hall. It is illegal for staff to serve someone who is clearly inebriated.

2.3 Students who repeatedly fail to exercise self-restraint will be asked to see their Tutor to identify any underlying problems and discuss solutions.

2.4 Actions arising from inebriation which place unnecessary burden on the community’s limited resources (the Police, Addenbrooke’s Hospital, the City Council, and the College staff) will be referred to the Dean. Drunkenness is not a defence, and will not be accepted as a mitigating circumstance for any misconduct. The College will normally expect individuals concerned to pay any bills arising from soiling or damages caused to properties. Some bills have in the past run to well over £1,000.

2.5 Like many things in life, alcohol can be safe and enjoyable when consumed in moderation. Take care of your own consumption and be responsible for drinking behaviour of others.
Appendix C: Terms and Conditions for the Use of the College Computer Network

1. Connection of wired or wireless networking devices, extenders, repeaters, hubs, switches or routers to the College wired or wireless network, including WiFi enabled Printers, is not permitted.

2. Disguising a true identity on the network (spoofing) is strictly prohibited, e.g. Mac Address, user identification, etc.

3. The College reserves the right to disable any network connection while investigating suspected non-compliance with the TCDN/UDN rules and policies. The IT Office will re-enable the network connection when the problem has been resolved satisfactorily. Each user is responsible for all use of their assigned network connections.

4. The College reserves the right to implement network traffic quotas if and when appropriate to ensure the best network performance available for all users.

5. All personally owned devices must be secured against being used by anyone other than the registered user, such as using password or pin protection to log into networked devices.

6. It is the responsibility of the user to keep networked devices secure against attack. Any operating system(s) must be kept up-to-date with all the recommended patches, service packs, etc. See https://www.trin.cam.ac.uk/computing/college-network/terms-and-conditions/security

7. All users must ensure they have anti-virus software installed and that it is active on their devices while connected to the network. Every effort must be made to keep anti-virus software on networked devices updated. Free anti-virus software for some devices are available for members of the University. See https://help.uis.cam.ac.uk/user-accounts-security/security/antivirus-individuals

8. Each networked device must be registered on the network and will be automatically provided with IP(s) via DHCP from a TCDN access point.

9. Users will need to justify the need for any more than five wired and five wireless total registered devices at any time. This justification will need to be academically related. Approval will be subject to availability on the network without causing the performance to be affected.

10. Publicly addressable servers on the network, e.g. Web, FTP, NNTP, etc. are not allowed.

Appendix D: Trinity College Students’ Union

Trinity College Students’ Union (TCSU) has a written constitution which is subject to review at intervals of not more than five years by the College Council, by which all amendments must also be approved.

1. Students have the right to opt out of TCSU; by doing so they lose the right to vote or stand in elections, but shall not be disadvantaged thereby with regard to provision of services.
2. A student wishing to exercise this right will inform the Senior Treasurer of the TCSU in writing.
3. Election to major offices of the TCSU is by secret ballot, in which all members may vote. A report on each election will be submitted to the College Council by the Returning Officer.
4. The budget accounts and details of donations are submitted annually to the College Council by the Senior Treasurer, and made available to all students.
5. Notice of proposed affiliation to an external organisation is given to the College Council and to all students, with details of the relevant subscription or affiliation fee. Affiliations are reviewed annually and approved by members; a referendum on affiliation may be called by five percent of the membership. The detailed procedures relating to external affiliations are set out in section 4 of the TCSU Constitution.
6. Allocation of resources to College Clubs and Societies by the TCSU Committee is reported annually to the College Council and the procedure freely accessible to students.
7. All students or groups of students who (i) are dissatisfied in their dealings with the TCSU or (ii) claim to have been unfairly disadvantaged by virtue of their exercise of the opt-out right of (2), may avail themselves of the College complaints procedure, which is published on MyTrin.
8. Student Unions are affected by the law relating to charities. The Charity Commission provides guidance in this regard which is available on their website at http://www.charity-commission.gov.uk/supportingcharities/ogs/g048b004.asp
